

Prices

The Charlottetown Herald.

NEW SERIES

CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1880

VOL XXII NO 2

The Charlottetown Herald
IS PUBLISHED
Every Wednesday
BY
Jas. McLean, Editor & Proprietor
FROM THE "HERALD" OFFICE, CONNOLLY'S BUILDING,
Queen Street, Charlottetown, P. E. I.
Subscription: One Year, in Advance, $1.00

ADVERTISING RATES.—50 cents per copy for first insertion, and 20 cents for each continuation. Special notices 10 cents per line for each insertion.

Contracts made for Monthly, Quarterly, Half-yearly, or Yearly Advertisements, on application.

Rentments may be made by Draft, P. O. Order, or Registered Letter.

Correspondence should be addressed to

THE EDITOR OR TO THE "HERALD"

ALWAYS
WOODLIES
GERMAN
BAKING
POWDER

Satisfactory.

North British and Mercantile FIRE AND LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY
ESTABLISHED 1860.
2nd Decr., 1881. - $300,000,000.
TEN ACTS every description of Fire and Life Insurance on the most favourable terms.

This Company has been well and favourably known for its prompt payment of losses in this Island during the past thirty years.

FRID. W. HYDEMAN, Agent

Old Merchants Bank of P. E. I.
Water St., Charlottetown, Jan. 1, 1882. 1/4

OATS,
POTATOES & PORK
WANTED.

We call for an immediate and full settlement of all accounts due us.
We will close all accounts with you. Our men can get the worth of your goods.

ARCH'D CURRIE.

South Oct. 5, 1881—now 2m.

The Charlottetown Hospital.

UNDER the management of the staff of skilled physicians, supplied with all the conveniences for the treatment of special cases, we have recently made a moderate charge for physical examinations, and particularly to the Lady Superior, to any member of the medical staff.

March 12, 1880.—

FARM FOR SALE

This farm for sale his situated about 1/2 mile from the head of St. Peter's Bay. It contains about 15 acres of land one half of which is cleared and has good soil covered with young and fine wood the other half is unbroken and has good soil of water on the mountain. The land is situated in a very convenient locality in one of the prettiest places on the Island.

We invite a particular party by letter to see it, Mr. J. McLean, St. Peter's Bay.

Mr. J. McLean, St. Peter's Bay.

William Donalv.

Aug. 10.—

Willing Captives
ARE Made Happy Daily, at the Tailoring Establishment.

The united testimony of our delighted customers serve our purpose best, build wear is to be intoxicated with pleasure and delight at the comfort experienced—fitting everywhere—binding nowhere. This high standard has only been attained through years of unceasing toil, but now our well-earned laurels are happily appreciated by a long suffering public.
Come and be made happy likewise.

THIS Honor or to the "HERALD"

McLeod & McKenney.

EXHIBITION SALE
OF
Farmers J. X. L. Feed Mills

For grinding Oats, Barley, Wheat and Flax Seed.
Capacity, 20 bushels per hour with an ordinary 2 horse team mill.

One carload of these consigned to us to be sold by auction without reserve on Exhibition grounds on Wednesday, 28th September.

Terms, six months on approved notes.

E. H. Norton & Co.
AUCTIONEERS.

PERKINS & STERNS.

New Millinery and Mantles.

Our display in first-class, new styles and cheap.

NEW DRESS GOODS! NEW DRESS GOODS!

For the Newest Goods and right good value do not pass us by.

PRINTS, SATEENS & MUSLINS.

We have an elegant variety of these goods, and ask you to look at them whether you want to buy them or not.
We give patterns.

Large stock of hosiery, Corsets and Gloves.

PERKINS & STERNS

St. Bonaventure's College,
ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND.

Under the Care of the Irish Christian Brothers.

THIS COLLEGE affords, at moderate expense excellent advantages to students. The healthiness of its situation, the equipment of the Schools, and the general furnishing of the establishment, leave nothing to be desired for the comfort and improvement of the pupils.

THREE COURSES.

Preparatory, Commercial & Matriculation. [London University.]

TERMS.

Day Pupils, $15, $18, etc., per annum, according to class.
Boarders—$160 per annum.

Prospectuses and further particulars on application to

J. L. SLATTERY.

FURNITURE.

THE CHEAPEST YET.

Calls and Inspect and get Bargains at Actual Prices for Cash

THE CHEAPEST PLACE ON P. E. ISLAND.

DRAWING ROOM PARLOR SUITES, best value.

BEDROOM SUITES at low prices,

All kinds of UPHOLSTERED GOODS at Bargains,

PICTURE FRAMING, 125 varieties, very cheap and nobly

LOOKING GLASSES.

The latest in WINDOW BLINDS, and all kinds of WIN-DOW FURNITURE and Fixings at cost.

trouble to show goods. Can suit all tastes at NEW

SON'S FURNITURE WAREROOMS, opposite the Post Office.

JOHN NEWSOM

Charlottetown, Feb. 20, 1882.

WILLIAM DONALV.

mg 10.—

The Wealth
of Health
ARE SCOTT'S
EMULSION

Of Pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil and Hypophysis proves blood enriching properties in a remarkable degree. Are you off dread? Take Scott's Emulsion. Almost as palatable as Milk. Doctor and Prescribed only by Scott & Sons, Bellona.

Catholic Letters.

The power of the press comes in the knowledge—or even in the knowledge—of those who write is multiplied into the number of those who read them. I suppose should be the greatest enlightenment of the greatest number in that while Burke has denounced as a "francis democracy," and that while art and science create a sound material civilization, the Christian Faith may carry it up to divine and overlasting heights. On this view Catholic writers are entitled to find out to them, if they do their particularity, should be large enough to tempt the noblest ambition.

A SIGNIFICANT LIST,

There are, I reckon, in the British Empire and in the United States at least fifteen millions of English-speaking Catholics. More than five millions of these lie within easy reach of the eye in which we are now assembled. And unless we are so far from the mark as to suppose that five nor the fifteen millions are among the stupidest of mankind. On the contrary, they have quick brains and an unmistakable sense of literature, but can we maintain that literature, among Catholics, has a recognizable position or is a career in which we should recommend even a man of genius to embark with any confidence? The previous speakers have brought out the difficulty of answering in the affirmative. And in the state of things which the writer himself I presume to realize we can hardly expect that any Catholic writer should be taught to realize that his obligation is to realize the obligation of mediating which desires to employ the services of religion, should seriously meditate whether more necessary and more fruitful employment can be found for their riches than in establishing the Catholic press.

THE POSSIBLE POWER OF THE CATHOLIC PRESS.

There can be no doubt on this head. The Catholic press—I do not mean books exclusively or mainly, which again, I say, is the outward visible form of the Catholic writer—is, in our day, and will be more and more as education spreads, the great religious order, the most effective propagandists, the instruments of expansion and protection of the Church. We have had, and still have, the Pope, the Bishop, the Prelate, the Clergy, the Religious Orders. Why should I hesitate to avow that the Catholic writer who lives worthy of his vocation is at once a consummate preacher, and a missionary?

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in the apostolic condition; which is, as they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can make a figure, to make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere
than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in
the apostolic condition; which is, as
they should alone do, to paint their
faces, to make a figure, to force
out of several things, no, but have
the assurance at first of finding
and an audience, before they can
make a name, and to make a fortune.

Men and women exist among us
whose talents are indeed remarkable,
but when they look for an audience
or a market, they must look elsewhere than at home. They will hardly serve the altar, in<br