

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

ENTWISTLE-PEMBINA RIVER.

Bulletin News Service.
Business is a little quiet this week and freighters are slowing down somewhat after the busy rush.
The Canadian White outfit passed through this week fully equipped for business.
The hotel is nearing completion and will be a fine structure.
Mr. and Mrs. Entwistle are still here. Mr. Entwistle is about fencing in his homestead.
A. W. Armp has opened an office on his new premises on the Armp block, Entwistle.
M. Macnamoral has opened his newly built tenorial parlor and pool room.
A shooting gallery is the last innovation but being outdoors is not much patronized as yet.
Preparations are being made at the saw mill for commencing operations when the ice breaks up in the river.
Willie Entwistle and Tom Russell have gone on a bear hunting expedition.
F. L. Day of Edmonton, is expected in today from the west.
Real estate business is fairly active. Houses are going up as fast as lumber can be procured.
W. J. Keen is freighting west from the west side of the river.
Nomination of councillors takes place Thursday evening 15th inst.
A meeting of the Entwistle Board of Trade was held at the home of Mr. Entwistle and the general business, Mr. Langworthy and Mr. Armp were elected the first vice-presidents of the board. Mr. Goodridge presided at the meeting.
The Elsie Bruce company have just completed an enlargement of their store.
The dance given on Monday evening by the young men of the town was a decided success, upwards of twenty couples enjoying the music furnished by Messrs. Crawford, Simmons and McKay. F. E. O'Grady the proprietor of the Pembina Hotel furnished lunch. During the evening Mrs. Johnson of Seba rendered a song and Mr. Rutherford contributed a comic ditty. Those from a distance attending were: G. Rice, Chris Gauthier, E. Pettijohn and Miss Peard. Ulrich, Pembina, West, Misses Simmons, Yaeger, and Mrs. Johnson, Seba, accompanied by Messrs. Simmons, Yaeger, Tompkins and Cohn.
Entwistle-Pembina River, April 17.

VEGEVILLE.

Bulletin News Service.
The annual meeting of the local Liberals of Vegreville was held in McIntyre hall Friday afternoon. There was a fairly good attendance.
The following officers were elected:
Hon. President J. B. Holden, M.P. P.; Hon. vice-president, W. H. White, P.; president, J. J. Stanton; secretary, W. L. Clements; 2nd vice, H. Trehan; secretary treasurer, A. H. son, vice-presidents, S. J. G. A. L. Shaw, M. Thompson, C. E. Morton, L. Gully, N. McIntyre, W. Conrre, John Trimble, P. Swartz, H. L. Cunningham, H. A. Gyles, H. Payne.
Mr. Rocicot has filed on a homestead north of the river and will shortly move the stock in his store and run a store at St. Paul des Metis in connection with the farm.
Quite a number of immigrants are arriving daily from the east and the banks are taking up homesteads north of the river.
P. G. Campbell has sunk a well on the lot he purchased from N. Land. He struck an abundance of soft water at a depth of 60 feet.
Vegreville, April 17th.

MANLY.

Bulletin News Service.
It is with much regret the settlers heard of the demise of Ed. Ingles, the suddenness of which is appalling. The current topic is the inadequate police protection of Stony Plain.
The sawing sitting at Woods is finished and Stacey's sawing outfit is next going to Rufus Hadley's but not until after seeding.
Miss Bertha Miller is expected to return home this week from her visit to Edmonton.
James Reid has nearly finished his new house. He is waiting for some patent roofing he intends to use to arrive from Edmonton.
Mr. and Mrs. Nelson have gone to Edmonton for a few days.
Freighters are again using the government road. The cautious stopping places at Manly are taxed to their utmost to accommodate the men and their horses. Some have had to tie up on the bush.
The stage which changes at Red's store has been full and over-crowded, going both east and west.
Manly, April 17th.

CLDYE.

Bulletin News Service.
The population of this district has increased lately. Mr. Bremner has moved from British Columbia with his family. At present they are living with A. Edgison. Mr. Bremner will build on his half section north of there this summer.
A McGregor has returned from his visit to Ontario and has resumed his place in Wiedrich's store. His mother and family came back with him. They have rented George Clyde's farm for the summer.
W. Woods has the company of his mother and two sisters. They arrived lately from Ontario.
The funeral of the late Mr. Mackie took place on Thursday last. Rev. Mr. Smith, of Pembina, performed the service. Quite a few were present at the house and also at the grave.
On Saturday night the death of Mr. Hill took place from typhoid fever. He was alone on his homestead except for the presence of a neighbor. Friends were notified as soon as possible.
C. F. Nelson has been finishing his barn lately. When completed it will be the finest and largest barn in the Clyde district.
Miss Bell of Pembina has been engaged as teacher here and has begun her new duties.

TOFIELD.

Bulletin News Service.
M. McCauley, warden of the Edmonton penitentiary, and Mrs. McCauley, spent a few days in town last week. Mr. McCauley does not propose to rebuild here until the trains arrive.
Mr. Legge, manager of the Merchants bank, and Constable Horn, spent Easter together at Wetaskiwin. When returning home, one of Mr. Legge's valuable drivers took very sick and was unable to finish the journey. It was taken to a farmer's stable, and left under a veterinary's care.
Mr. Paul, baker and confectioner, disposed of his business here, and left Edmonton road. The various stopping Paul having been superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school for some time, and having taken an active interest in church and sporting circles, will be much missed.
Miss M. Williams and Miss E. Tofield are visiting in Edmonton.
Miss M. Roth spent the Easter vacation at Fort Saskatchewan and Edmonton.
The ratepayers of the new rural school district south of Tofield held a meeting at Geo. Quam's on April 16 for the purpose of electing a school board. The following were elected trustees: A. A. Stery, W. Thompson and P. Ingram.
J. McMullen, who received a kick on his leg from a horse a few years ago, has suffered so much lately from the injury that the leg had to be operated upon to remove a growth which had formed. The operation was successfully performed on Monday last by Dr. Hammond.
Wm. Meak, auditor of the public works department, passed through here, spending the week end with J. Priestley.
John Blackstock, jr., has been offered a good position with the Alberta Coal company, of Morinville, and has removed his family there.
A party of Dominion land surveyors and men passed through here on Friday, camping at Lac Ste. Anne in the evening.
Dan Noyes and his saw mill outfit are now busy at Newton's bridge, and expects to get through the work before seeding commences.
A meeting of the school trustees was held at the school on Thursday, the 18th inst., all the trustees being present. The most important item of business was the fixing of the tax for the present year; this was again fixed at 30% over the former year.
The material for the material of the spot tenders was called for the work.
Onoway, April 17th.

Geo. Lee has had a gang of men here lately and loaded eight cars of telephone poles in thirty-seven hours.
Bruderheim, April 17th.

ULSTER.

Bulletin News Service.
Many will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Jacob Riland of Ulster, who departed this life on April 13, 1909, aged fifty-three years, four months, leaving a sorrowful husband, four girls and three boys, three step-daughters, one sister and three brothers to mourn her loss. Deceased was born in Eldorado, Iowa, in 1855, coming with her husband and family to Alberta about seven years ago. They were amongst the first settlers in this district. Deceased was of a retiring disposition but devoted her busy life to the interests of her family and she was a true mother in Israel, whose joy was to minister to the welfare of her husband and family. She had been ailing for some time, and confined to her room. Despite the aid of the best medical skill the end came as above. The interment took place at Vermilion Valley Cemetery on the 17th inst., in the presence of a large number of mourners. The Rev. Hawley-dahl, Norwegian pastor, conducted services at the house, and performed the last rites at the graveside where the deceased was laid to rest in sure and certain hope of a glorious resurrection to eternal life.
Dr. E. P. Taylor, of England, is visiting along with his son at Mr. Kennedy's of Ulster. He is greatly impressed by the famous Vermilion Valley. He has purchased the half section lately owned by Matt Lemm, beside the Holden property of N. M. Smith, and these other lots. The general doctor is intent upon boosting Holden upon his return to England. He is leaving his son behind to watch Holden grow, and at the same time assist it by his efforts.
Matt Lemm held a sale of his effects on the 3rd inst. He along with his wife left for Edmonton and the shops on the 4th inst.
