TO-DAY'S Messages. 11.15 A.M.

INFANTRY ATTACK REPULSED. LONDON, To-day. An official statement issued yesterday afternoon under cover of heavy rifle, machine gun and artillery fire, the enemy attempted an infantry attack on a salient of our trenches northeast of Loos. The attack was driven back by our fire. Last night the enemy was active with rifles and artillery fire east of Armentieres and our artillery retaliated. To-day the enemy exploded a mine at Fricourt, also one east of Givenchy; no damage done. We sprang a mine east of Givenchy. Hostile artillery has been very active against our trenches north of Maricourt and between Loos and Labasse Canal. East of Armentieres we retaliated damaging hostile trenches in many places.

LOYD GEORGE ON VICTORY. LONDON, To-day. "I think that for us war is only beginning," said David Lloyd George, Minister of Munitions, in an interview yesterday with London correspondent Milan Scoote, "but I am absolutely confident of victory, because although we all have made mistakes in the past, England and her Allies are now taking counsel together and are stronger because they are united. By next spring we shall have for the first time a navy unammated by the enemy. Our superiority in men is unquestioned. Besides this, Germany's financial position is growing worse daily."

COOKING THE SHIP'S MANIFEST. LONDON, To-day. The Foreign Office, last night, issued an additional statement concerning the cargo found on the Swedish steamship Stockholm, which had been detained at Kirkwall since Jan. 24, and part of her cargo has been ordered into a prize court. The statement says: "The search of the cargo of the steamship Stockholm revealed the fact that it comprises a consignment of meat amounting to 142 tons, which, although originally intended for export, was subsequently cut out and for which there was no bill of lading among the ship's papers since leaving the Stockholm, New York, which had been superintended by His Majesty's Consul, who sealed the hatches and gave a certificate to that effect. The alteration of the manifest cannot but give rise to the suspicion that some fraud was intended."

12.45 P.M. SUCCESSFUL FIGHTING ON EGYPTIAN FRONTIER. LONDON, To-day. The War Office to-day issued further details of the recent fighting on the western frontier of Egypt. It says: "The enemy had no intention of British advance until the dawn of Jan. 23. It is stated by deserters who have reached Matruh that the enemy's losses on one flank alone exceeded the total losses of the engagement on Christmas Day, including some Turkish officers. This severe defeat, the War Office says, greatly discouraged local Bedouins who were with Senneel. They are reported to be deserting and returning east."

DODDS' KIDNEY PILLS. For all kidney diseases. Repudiates charges of counterfeit. The Foreign Office to-day issued a public note from the German Foreign Office, transmitted through James W. Gerard, American Ambassador in Germany, relating to alleged cruelty on the part of French and British troops towards German prisoners.

to vessels under the guidance of official pilots. Consul General Skinner of London reported to-day the Admiralty notified him of the location of a new mine field in the Baltic near the Sound, across the Channel southeast of Crogen Light, just off the Danish waters. Obstructions to navigation also have been placed between the Danish territorial waters and the German coast southeast of Rixhöft. Whether these precautions are related to Britain's reported intention of declaring an actual blockade on her enemies is not known to officials here.

THE TORPEDING OF THE S. S. PERSIA. WASHINGTON, To-day. The United States has addressed another enquiry to Austria, asking if any of its submarine commanders have knowledge of the destruction of the British liner Persia. The statement that they had none is reported to have been handed to Ambassador Penfield several days ago but has not been received here.

LOST AT SEA. NEW YORK, To-day. The British steamer Chase Hill, which sailed from New York for Havre on Jan. 14, foundered at sea, according to officers of the steamer Indrahama, which arrived here to-day. Captain Indrahama said on Jan. 22 he sighted the Spanish steamer Mar Adriatica, which signalled she had on board the shipwrecked crew of the Chase Hill. No details have been given concerning the loss of the vessel. The Chase Hill sailed from here with a cargo consisting largely of steel billets and beams.

THE MYSTERY OF THE APPAM. LONDON, To-day. Since the disappearance of the Waratah in 1909, nothing has mystified shipping circles as the vanishing of the Appam, the crack boat of the Elder Dempster Line. The recovery of a smashed lifeboat increased the fears of the loss of the steamer with all on board, as it is considered any rescuing vessel would have reported before this. Shipping men as a possible explanation of the Appam's disappearance broach the theory of German submarines shut out from the Mediterranean and operating off the west coast of Africa, as well as one of the German mines in the Bay of Biscay. About the time communication with the Appam ceased, a terrific storm in the waters through which she was passing, which would have rendered it hopeless to keep the lifeboats afloat. She called at all ports on the West Coast of Africa, picking up officials coming home on furlough. These formed a considerable portion of her passenger list of 166. Among the passengers booked to sail on her were Sir Edward and Lady Merewether and their sister, Freck. James, former acting Colonial Secretary, and closely identified with Colonial administrative affairs in Africa. Francis Charles Fuller, who was appointed Chief Commissioner of Ashanti in 1905, and Mrs. Fuller. Arrivals on a later liner say there were 200 passengers on the Appam when she left Dakar. The mystery of the liner Appam takes first place in the news of morning newspapers. Shipping experts believe that the steamer sunk about 16th January, northwest of Madeira from prevailing winds. It is believed the catastrophe occurred some distance north of the point where the life boat was found. At London offices of Elder Dempster Line the belief was expressed that the total loss of life would aggregate 301: 87 first-class passengers, 81 second-class passengers and 130 members of the crew. Most of the passengers were English and residents of London, while the majority of the crew were natives of Liverpool. Capt. H. C. Harrison was one of the oldest and most reliable officers in the company's employ.

ITALIANS ABANDON DURAZZO. ROME, To-day. A Giornale D'Italia Athens correspondent says Italy has decided to abandon Durazzo, Albania, owing to the fact that its defence presents most serious difficulties.

DOMINION STEEL PRESIDENT. MONTREAL, To-day. At special meeting of Directors of the Dominion Steel Corporation, held here this afternoon, Mark Workman, President of Mark Workman Co., Ltd., clothing manufacturers, was elected President to succeed J. H. Plummer, retiring because of poor health.

STOPPED COMMUNICATION. PARIS, To-day. Bulgaria stopped all communication across the Roumanian frontier on Jan. 23, according to a despatch to the Temps from Geneva.

ANTI-GERMAN DEMONSTRATION. PARIS, To-day. French anti-German demonstrations took place last night at Lausanne, a Swiss city on the northern shore of Lake Geneva. Towards midnight great crowds which surged through the streets were dispersed but at the railway station a small group of persons with German flags were attacked with stones, canes and fists. The police were forced to use their swords before they could rescue the men attacked.

LONDON WILL KEEP FINANCIAL LEAD. LONDON, To-day. A suggestion that the war might affect the position of London as the financial centre world was repudiated to-day by Sir Edward Head at the annual meeting of the London City and Midland Bank, of which he is managing director. "Not only shall we not lose that position," he said, "but we shall greatly improve it."

REPUDIATES CHARGES OF COUNTERFEIT. LONDON, To-day. The Foreign Office to-day issued a public note from the German Foreign Office, transmitted through James W. Gerard, American Ambassador in Germany, relating to alleged cruelty on the part of French and British troops towards German prisoners.

oners. The British Government gave an unqualified denial to the charges.

TAKES POSSESSION OF GREEK PORT. LONDON, To-day. A Salonika despatch to the Daily Chronicle, dated Friday, says the Allies' authorities to-day took possession of Fort Hara Buritto, at the eastern entrance and head of the Gulf of Salonika. A naval contingent landed and occupied the fort. The Greek garrison, after the commander had protested against the Allies' action, retired inland.

BURST DAM DROWNS FOURTEEN. BANDAIEGO, Cal., To-day. Fourteen persons were killed and a wide stretch of country devastated late to-day, when the dam of the Bandiego water system broke in the harbor, landed at daybreak Friday on the Karaburum Peninsula under the guns of their ships and occupied the Greek fort there. The garrison of the fort offered no resistance, but the commander of the troops entered a protest at being commanded to evacuate. At the same time as the naval landing, the French infantry surrounded the fort and neighboring habitations. The buildings were searched and the inhabitants ordered to be removed. This action on the part of the Entente Allies, according to a despatch, was dictated by strategic reasons and under the undesirable of having a fortress in other hands than their own. Another reason for the landing was, it is believed, that German submarines obtained supplies in the vicinity of this coast.

LONDON, To-day. Following the Chronicle despatch, a despatch to Reuters' Telegram Co. from Salonika states that detachments of marines from British, French, Russian and Italian warships in the harbor, landed at daybreak Friday on the Karaburum Peninsula under the guns of their ships and occupied the Greek fort there. The garrison of the fort offered no resistance, but the commander of the troops entered a protest at being commanded to evacuate. At the same time as the naval landing, the French infantry surrounded the fort and neighboring habitations. The buildings were searched and the inhabitants ordered to be removed. This action on the part of the Entente Allies, according to a despatch, was dictated by strategic reasons and under the undesirable of having a fortress in other hands than their own. Another reason for the landing was, it is believed, that German submarines obtained supplies in the vicinity of this coast.

2:15 P.M. TWO ARMY CORPS OF TURKS SHUT UP. LONDON, To-day. According to despatches from Petrograd, it is estimated that two army corps of Turks are shut up in Erzerum. The Russian correspondents on the western front have sent word to Petrograd that the Germans are reported to be manufacturing a new 22 lb. bomb for use in the spring campaign.

JOINED ITALIAN FORCES. PARIS, To-day. A despatch from Rome says Esmad Pasha has effected a junction with the Italian forces in Albania. It adds that he is fortifying the positions of Avlona and other points further south in Albania and is confident that he will be able effectively to stop the advance of the Austro-Hungarian forces.

Our Volunteers. There is no sign of improvement in recruiting, which has been practically at a standstill since the last week-end. Owing to all those in training undergoing inoculation on different days during the week little drill was carried out. Those inoculated Thursday resume drill this afternoon and those of the previous day went on at 9 a.m. to-day.

The Recount. The recounting of the ballots for Placentia District was continued yesterday, with the following results: Against Prohibition, $84; for prohibition, 764. The election returns were 909 votes against prohibition and 789 favoring it. This difference of 50 votes is accounted for by the fact that that number of ballots were not initialed, these were equally divided 25 being given to the affirmative vote, and 25 against prohibition. Decision as to the validity of these ballots is reserved and the recount will be heard when the count again meets. Arguments in connection with two other votes will be heard at the next sitting. The court will again meet on Monday next, when Mr. Kent for the liquor sellers and Mr. Hunt or Mr. Dunfield for the prohibitionists will be heard.
