TUESDAY EV'NO, NOV. 18, 1878, organs delight to call them,—are forgetting all about the No Party principles which they used to talk so much about a while ago. Now that Mr. Hooper, the Lennox County Treasurer, is started on the John A ticket to run against Mr. Cartwright the Mail is, of course, hammering held in London on the 29th October, the President announced that "The system away against the new Finance Minis ter in a series of editorials. inos of railway constructed by independent of Party. With the Mail now, party fidelity is the highest of all virtues. There is a saying amongst printers "Follow your copy, even if it takes You through the window." It is wise of the Mail to paraphrase this saying and apply it to following one's party; for it is about the only valid reason that can be given by those who still choose to follow Sir John A. Macdonald, despite all the mire he has dragged them through. There are some, however, who still place honor before Party—may their numbers increase.

A correspondent says that the opinion appears to be more or less divided among Toronto Conservatives relative to the prospects of Sir John A. Macdonald accepting the nomination for West Tovonto. There are those of his friends who assert that he will not. No additional strength to his party would result therefrom, even if elected there. Kingston would be lost to his party, and he would be lost to his party, and he would be lost to his party, and he would an all probability meet a foeworthy of his steel in Toronto, and perchaace, fall more ignominously by deserting his old constituency than, if defeated there.

It would seem that John A. has refused the nomination of the west Toronto Tories. The Mail says—"The adjourned meeting of the Liberal BIRTHS.

Sir John Macdonald's unwillingness to desert his old friends at Kingston was reported to the meeting, and resolutions were passed having for their object the selection of some other candidate who will carry the election

The St. Catharines News says that on the Niagara frontier of about thirty miles there are four custom houses, whilst two of them could easily discharge all the duties. It asks that two of them be abolished.

The rush of business at the Public Works Department is amazing. People who have been daugling for months on the late Minister find the change highly satisfactory. Among the deputy heads of Departments likely to be superannuated are Messrs Parent and Futvoye. These gentlemen have long passed the age allowed by the Civil Service Act.

intention to support Mackenzio's Government.

The Tory organs still adhere to the statement that there was a conflict between His Excellency and his Ministers on the subject of the recent appointments It is only necessary to answer again on authority of the Ministers that not only is the statement untre but it is without any foundation what here.

and will support an istration.

Mr. Cartwright, the Finance Minister, is expected here. Notwithstanding the boastings of the Tory organs, the latter gentleman's opponent in Lennox is likely to be searcely strong enough to make the contest interesting.

It is believed in Montreal that Mr. Fournier will be re-elected by accla-omation for the County of Belle Chasse, as the Conservatives have resolved to make no opposition.
