Wall Paper Styles

Styles change in Wall Paper same as in carpets and furniture. This season there had been a very pronounced change. New browns, greens, reds, drabs, pinks, etc., have been brought out, which will surely be fast sellers. Our samples of these new shades have been shown to hundreds of people during the past few weeks and have been justly admired by all—the new American papers receiving perhaps the most praise. If you intend papering, don't fail to see our samples. Eggs taken.

BUY YOUR SHOES FROM US

Shoe buying is a problem you can't escape. Like death and taxes shoe buying cannot be evaded. If we are the most enterprising, energetic and successful shoe dealers in this town, we have earned our reputation by giving larger and better dollar's worth. Our profit on a single pair is small, because we sell so many of them. Come to us to buy.

BOOKS' NARROW ESCAPES.

Virgil's "Æneid." Works of Aristotle and Talmud Saved by Good Luck.

Three of the greatest books in the world have narrowly escaped destruction, the "Æneid" of Virgil, the works of Aristotle and the great body of Jewish tradition represented by the Talmud.

It is recorded that Virgil on his deathbed sought to burn the only copy of the "Æneid," as he had not revised it, and when he was folled in this he ordered his executors, Varro and Tucca, not to give it to the world, a direction which was disregarded by order of the Emperor Augustus.

The works of Aristotle suffered from neglect. They lay many years buried in a cellar, and when, by mere accident, they were at last unearthed, they were so damaged by damp and dirt that in many passages they are hopelessly corrupt. How great would have been the loss of this work to the human race may be judged from the fact that everything that was known in the middle ages of the arts and sciences was derived directly from these writings.

The Talmud nearly became extinct through persecution. The possession of the Talmud, by a long series of edicts extending over many centuries, was made penal, and the book itself was burned. No fewer than 24 wagon loads of Talmud manuscript were burned in France in 1244.—Stray
