LORD ROBERTS

Says He Hopes To Be About in a Few Days.

Boers Defeated at Vanderspan—The Lancers Do Effective Work—Krugger in France Talks Fight.

London, Nov. 22.—The following dispatch has been received at the war office from Lord Roberts, dated Johannesburg.

"My horse fell with me Sunday and bruised me somewhat. Am doing well. Hope to be about in a few days."

Bloemfontein, Nov. 22.—The Boers under Brand were defeated Nov. 19, at Vanderspan, with heavy losses, the lancers charging through the flying line and doing deadly damage, as a number of riderless horses demonstrated. Brand himself was wounded. The British casualties were not serious.

Cape Town, Nov. 22.—The health officer certifies that the disease prevailing at Izell, near King Williamstown, is the bubonic plague. Another case was reported today.

KRUGGER'S BLUSTER.

Marseilles, Nov. 22.—Mr. Kruger is doubtless elated at the warmth of the reception by the people of Marseilles today. The fighting declaration he made at the landing-stage dispelled any impression that he might intend to accept a compromise from the British Government. His announcement was greeted with a roar of cheers and cries of "Vive Kruger," "Vive les Boers," "Vive la liberte." Mr. Kruger repeated the sentiment from the hotel balcony where, replying to the acclamations of the people, he said the reception given him today would do much to soothe the wounds in his heart. "The Boers," said he, "would never sacrifice their freedom. They would rather be exterminated to a man."

SUDDEN DEATH

Of Sir Arthur Sullivan, Who Composed the Music of "Pinafore," "Patience" and Other Popular Operas.

London, Nov. 22.—Sir Arthur Sullivan, the musical composer, is dead, the result of heart failure. Sir Arthur Sullivan's death was very unexpected. It occurred at 9 o'clock this morning. While he was laughing and talking to a friend he fell back and died within a few minutes of heart failure. He had been ailing for some time, but it was not believed his heart was affected. Recently he had been in better health than for some weeks past.

Sir Arthur Sullivan had been ailing since he returned from Switzerland, in the middle of September. He caught a cold there and his chest and lungs became affected. He took to his bed a fortnight ago, but was convalescing and sitting up in his bed just before he expired. The afternoon newspapers print long eulogies.

Arthur Seymour Sullivan was born in London, May 13, 1842. He received musical instruction at the Chapel Royal, St. James, and at the Conservatoire, Leipzig. His operas, cantatas, etc., are too well known to need more than reference. He was a member of a large number of foreign learned and musical societies. The honorary degree of Doctor of Music he received from Cambridge at Oxford. He was a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor, a Knight of the Order of the House of Coburg, and had received from the Sultan of Turkey the Order of the Medjidieh. He was knighted by the Queen at Windsor in 1883.

Telegraphic Briefs.

Speaking in Santiago de Cuba Secretary of War Root, reiterated the promise of Cuban independence. He is looking over the island at the request of President McKinley.

A Chicago mob made two frenzied attacks on the police in a movement to lynch Harry Evans, colored, identified as the assailant of Freda Guenther, aged 7, who is likely to die.

The United States authorities have forwarded to London a gold watch and chain for Captain A. W. Richardson, of the British steamship Orange Prince, who rescued two American fishermen who had drifted to sea in a small boat.

Miss Theresa Keating, a highly respected young woman, who resided with her two sisters at No. 171 University avenue, Rochester, N. Y., was robbed, outraged and brutally murdered Tuesday night, her body being discovered in a vacant lot of Davis street. No clue to the murderer.

Thomas Farley, a tinsmith, and his wife were found dead in their rooms in a New York tenement house Wednesday. Both had been shot through the temple. There is every reason to believe that the man murdered his wife and then killed himself. Farley was 35 years old and his wife about three years younger.

GREAT GATHERING

Of Liberals Expected on Dec. 13, at the Halifax Banquet.

[Special to The Advertiser per C.P.R.] Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 22.—The ministers of the crown have been asked to attend the Liberal banquet in Halifax on Dec. 13.—All elected members and defeated candidates in Nova Scotia will be present. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, it is understood, has accepted an invitation. Hon. Messrs. Fielding and Borden and Sir Louis Davies will also attend.

MR. KRUGGER AT MARSEILLES

Ex-President of the Transvaal Breathes Out Defiance of the British.

Marseilles, Nov. 22.—Ex-President Kruger of the Transvaal landed here at 10:45 this morning from the steamer Gelderland. The weather was beautiful and the Boer leader received a magnificent demonstration. The whole route from the landing place to his hotel was crowded with people. He appeared to be in good health, and repeatedly took off his high hat in acknowledging the acclamations of the people.

Replying to the address of welcome, Mr. Kruger spoke in Dutch, and in a low voice; but he accompanied his words with energetic movements of his hat which he held in his right hand. After thanking the committees for the warmth of the reception accorded him, and expressing gratitude for the sympathy he had received from the French government, he spoke of the war as being terrible, and barbarously conducted by the British. He said:

"I have fought with savages, but the present war is even worse. We will never surrender. We are determined to fight to the last extremity, and if the republics of the Transvaal and Orange Free State lose their independence, it will be because they have lost every man, woman and child."

THE STORM DOWN EAST

Two Persons Killed in Ottawa and One in Montreal.

Ottawa, Nov. 21.—David Moodie and Wm. Prudhomme were killed by the falling of one of the old walls in the burned district during a heavy gale this afternoon. Moodie was the owner of a blacksmith shop beside which the wall stood. The wall in falling crashed through the shop, killing the men inside.

AT MONTREAL.

Montreal, Nov. 21.—A portion of the new theatre Francaise, now in course of erection on St. Catharine street, collapsed this afternoon, and a number of people were buried in the ruins. One man was killed and several people seriously injured.

Dead—Anzeletto Costello, aged 52. Injured—Louis Costello, 10 years; Frank Tambourini, 6 years; Mrs. Tambourini, 40 years.

THE BIRTH RATE IN CANADA

Apparent Decrease Largely Due to Carelessness in Registration.

Toronto, Nov. 22.—Dr. Bryce, secretary of the provincial board of health, has compiled a statement of the vital statistics of Ontario for 1899. The averages are founded upon a
