situated miraculously escaped. Chief Thompson says that at least two of the deaths were due to disobedience of orders.

three or four children. It was at first feared that seven men had met death, but after a roll call of the sections of the brigade who were fighting the fire, Chief Thompson announced that the five named were all the dead. THE BURNED PREMISES. The premises destroyed were the huge storage and grain cleaning warehouse of D. McIntosh & Son on Front street. The building, which was formerly a street railway car barn, was over 444 feet long by 68 wide and the walls were about 30 feet high with a flat roof. The fire broke out at 6:15, and as the materials stored in the building were inflammable, it burned with great rapidity. The various sections of the brigade were scattered around the walls and many men were on ladders and on the roof when

SIGNS OF COLLAPSE were seen. Chief Thompson ordered the men on the ground close under the walls to go back and two of those billed were caught by the falling walls because they did not at once respond to the chief's orders. At 6:40 the walls of the big building, released from the support of the roof trusses, gave way in all directions. Dozens of firemen were on ladders all around the building and they FELL WITH THE WALLS, but the only men buried beneath the debris were firemen attending to hose lines and hydrants on the ground who did not get warning in time to save When the walls collapsed the fire was in a measure smothered and a large part of the brigade at once turned WORK OF RESCUE. Only one of the men buried beneath the walls was rescued alive, a fireman named Taggart. By 9:15 all the bodies were recovered and removed to the morgue.

See, one of the victims, was a veteran of the South African war. ANOTHER ACCIDENT that may result fatally, was due to Charles S. Soplis, of the Parkdale reel, was thrown from the wagon while galloping to the fire, and the wheels passed over him, breaking his back. FINANCIAL LOSS. The financial loss will be very great, but so many interests are involved that no definite statement is yet available. The destroyed warehouse was one of the largest storage places in Toronto. The buildings were owned by the Toronto Railway and leased to Mc-Intosh & Co. The building assessment was $28,000, insurance $27,000 in about 30 companies. The McIntosh & Co. loss on grain, hay, etc., is $40,000. They also loss $30,000 worth of machinery, which is a total wreck. The Royal and Atlas are the chief carrying risks of $55,000, some of which it is understood were reinsured. Gowans, Kent & Co., wholesale crockery, had $20,000 worth of goods in the building, insured for $17,500. There are some 50 smaller losses or storage, ranging from a few hundred

London, July 10 .- A steady stream of repatriated burghers, says the London has recently been returning home. The will be continued, and that he sees no Boers are supplied with tents, equipments and rations for a month. This week the general return begins by government transport of those not possessing horses and carts of their own. A local commission in each district will assist in the restoration of the people to their homes, supplying wood, shelter, seeds and stock when necessary. Each commission will be under the presidency of a resident magistrate, and will exercise broad discretion in making grants with regard to position of the families before the war. PREFERENTIAL TREATMENT. The correspondent points out that the National Scouts-Boers who fought on the British side—deserve preferential treatment, and are as anxious as others to return to their normal life. Not more than 400 of these will return to their own farms. Many of them may take advantage of government land settlement schemes.

This week a group of settlers possessing some capital will be established in ing some capital will be established in the Ermelo district. These include more than 50 New Zealanders.

The sum of £3,000,000 will be put at the disposal of the local commissioners for settlement of claims for war losses. When the successful complainant has received no supplies, his share will be paid in cash. In other cases the value of supplies granted will be deducted.

Two members of parliament, discussng the matter, said that Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman told them that Mr. Balfour said the King desired to be crowned as soon as possible. He would like the coronation to take place about present needs, not with regard to the the middle of August. This desire is held in court circles. There is little doubt that an early coronation is being held out to the King by his physicians as a stimulus. It is stated that the King's anxiety to be crowned is due to the alleged prophecy that he never would be crowned, which is said to weigh on his mind.

AUTHORITATIVE STATEMENT. London, July 10. - An authoritative statement regarding the health of King Edward was published in today's issue of the British Medical Journal. It says:
"In view of the fact that sinister stories continue to be manufactured and printed, it may be again stated as emphatically as possible that during the fied that his majesty's constitution is thoroughly sound." The British Medical Journal adds: "The progress of the last week has been everything that could be desired. The wound, though still deep, is gran-ulating well.' "During the last ten days the improvement in his majesty's general health has been remarkably rapid. The King has regained his strength almost completely, and is able to take re-stricted diet with a good appetite. The Lancet also stigmatizes as "lies" sensational rumors circulated, and says: "There is not and never has been the faintest shadow or ghost of a suspicion of any malignant disease. The Lancet specifically asserts that the King is free from cancer.

The Short Supply of Cotton the Main Trouble—Discovery of a New Element.

London, July 10.—The cotton crisis in Lancashire is growing more acute, and the trade regards a heavy reduction of the output as being its only salvation.
A meeting has been called for July 11 to consider the replies to circulars advocating joint action of the spinners in resorting to short time, as was done during the last two summers. The general opinion is that a curtailment of the production on even a more extensive scale than heretofore will be necessary to avoid heavy losses.

President Charles W. Macara, of the Masters' Federation, says the short supply of cotton and the big discount in the price for future delivery are the main causes of the crisis. He declares that speculators have secured posses sion of the raw material and that the firms running ful ltime are playing into their hands. The only hope for the Lancashire cotton industry is for the trade to act unanimously.

The rays it emits are something like those of the metal radium, but differ in being almost completely absorbed by paper, as well as by glass. Prof. Mackwald has proved that a porcelain tube heavily charged with electricity by rubbing immediately lowers its charge when morsel of this metal, weighing hardly a milligramme, is brought within a distance of one decimeter. A chemical analysis of the new metal is rendered very difficult by the fact that

> Henley, Eng., July 10.-Unsettled weather somewhat marred the spec-tacular features of the closing day of the regatta, but it in no way diminished the attendance. Besides the thousands temporarily domiciled in the town and on the houseboats, visitors arrived in large numbers throughout the morning, and when the racing began at 1 o'clock the inclosures, club lawns, and river were Indian princes were guests of the regatta officials. A strong, steady wind off the Bucks shore made the water decidedly rough, and gave a full length of advantage to the crews fortunate enough to draw that station.

FOR THE GRAND CHALLENGE

The racing opened with the final heat for the Grand Challenge Cup, in which, after a good race, Leander succumbed to the Cambridge crew, which yesterday defeated Argonauts, of Toronto. Third Trinity had all the London, July 10 .- Mr. Whitelaw Reid disadvantage of the Berks station, says that he has received no intima- but they got off first, and at Fawley Court, which was reached in 3 minute 29 seconds, were two lengths ahead. At the mile post, reached in 5 minutes 25 seconds, the Leanders spurted splendidly, but though they drew up a little, they could never overhaul their opponents, and lost the trophy, which they had held for the past four years. Today's time was the worst in six years.

In the final for the Diamonds, F. S. Kelley, Balliol College, Oxford, repeated his surprise of yesterday by gaining an unexpected victory over R. B. Etherington-Smith, Leander. The later had the favored station, and led for a while, but the Oxonian gradually wore him down. At Fawley Court, which was reached in 4 minutes 14 seconds, Smith was a quarter of a length to the good. But by the time the mile post was reached Kelley was level, and being able to keep up forcing tactics, gradually drew clear, and ultimately won easily.

The Irish crew lost the heat for the Thames Cup through a similar disadvantage of position, and Titus was equally unfortunate in having the worst water and in being beaten in the heat for the Diamond Sculls, although he was generally regarded as a superior oarsman to Kelley. Luck heavily against the visitors in all these events. The attendance was again large, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather.

vessel at Bremen. She was then accompanied by a tenyear-old boy, and explained to the ofcials that the child was her son, and that she had come on board to bid him good-bye before sending him to an uncle in this country. When three days out from port she was discovered among the steerage passengers. She refused to give any reason for hiding away on board, beyond saying that at the last moment she felt that she could not part from her son. The board of special inquiry will be

The Municipal Convention, Montreal, July 10.—The union of Canadian municipalities will probably meet here on Sept. 15-17. The city council has extended the invitation and Westmount has appointed a committee to associate the town with Montreal's hospitality. The union represents seventy cities, towns and municipalities from every part of Canada. Mayor Howland, of Toronto, is to bring forward a proposal for the union of corporations of a certain size with the object of raising money at better rates. This will be a great boon to the smaller towns. The Women's Council.

St. John, N. B., July 10 .- Forty members of the Women's Council were yesterday driven by the Tourist Society to the chief points of interest about the city. While looking at Reversible Falls, they heard an address from Dr. Hay, on the history of the locality, and from Dr. Matthew on its geology. At a subsequent meeting the following were elected conveners of committees: Protection of women and children, Mrs. Edwards; pernicious literature, Mrs. Gardiner; finance, Mrs. Learmont; immigration, Miss Laidlaw; press, Mrs. Cummings; domestic science, Mrs. Hoodless; women for school board, Mrs. Boomer; aged poor, Lady Taylor; art, Madame school playgrounds, Miss Peters.
