A large gang of men are, however, working on it each day, and it will soon be in working order.

Tomorrow, the 26th of October, the company is bound to run cars if the city says so, but the line is not by any means in working shape yet.
Residents of the south end complain that a telegraph or telephone pole which had to be removed to make way for the care line at the corner of South and Wellington streets, has been placed right in the middle of the roadway on the north side of the track. The attertion of City Engineer Graydon has been called to this matter.

WILL NOT HOLD JOINT MEETINGS

Mr. J. M. McEvoy on the Platform.

Mr. Peter Elson, the Conservative candidate for the east riding of Middlesex, will not meet the Liberal candidate, Mr. John M. McEvoy, on platform and discuss the issues of the Mr. McEvoy recently wrote to Mr. Elson, proposing that a series of joint meetings should be held throughout the riding, thus meaning a great saving of time, and also affording the electors a better opportunity to hear the public questions dealt with from both points of view.

The proposition of the Liberal candidate, however, has been declined by Mr. Elson. In a letter to Mr. McEvoy, he says that he cannot consent joint meetings, owing to the lack of time at his disposal. Mr. McEvoy holds a meeting at Belmont tonight.
