

FOR THIRTY YEARS
PASSED AS WOMANA Man in Skirts Acted as a
Domestic in Best Boston Families.

Boston, June 23.—Following the funeral of "Harriet Kelly, stewardess" of the steamer Governor Andrew, who perished when the steamer was destroyed by fire on Sunday, the discovery has been made that although believed to be a woman for 30 years, this was a mistake. Letters from three emerald men, residents of Boston and Wellesley, have been found among "Miss Kelly's" effects.

Harriet Kelly was a trusted servant in many well-known Back Bay families, performing all the duties of a housemaid and enjoying the usual freedom of women in the household. Her father and mother of this strange person are living in Wolverhampton, Staffordshire, England.

Harriet Kelly was born in Wolverhampton and reared and educated as a girl. When 23 years old Harriet came to Boston as the servant of John Fleming, of Brookline. Her sex was never suspected. Although having many male admirers Harriet seldom accepted their advances seriously. Harriet shaved regularly, but her habit was believed to be only "peculiar."

WEST LAMBTON CONS.
ELECT AND NOMINATEMr. S. E. Lesueur Once More Selected to Contest Commons.

Sarnia, June 23.—The Conservatives of West Lambton met here today and nominated R. E. Lesueur for the Dominion election on the first ballot. The convention was largely attended from all parts of the riding. Mr. Lesueur, Dominion organizer, president, and the following officers were elected: President, P. McElhinney; vice-president, Robert Beatty; secretary, R. V. Lesueur; treasurer, E. Watson.

The following candidates were placed in nomination: Hon. W. J. Hanna, M. J. McGibbon, Mr. John Wilson, Dr. Bentley, ex-mayor; A. J. Johnston, John R. Logan, R. E. Lesueur, Hon. Mr. Hanna, in withdrawing his name, urged each delegate to vote for the candidate who would poll the largest vote in his particular subdivision. He paid a high tribute to Mr. R. L. Borden in his leadership of the party. A ballot was then taken on the names of Messrs. Lesueur, Bentley, Johnston and Logan, and Chairman Carstairs announced the election of Mr. Lesueur with a clear majority in the ballots cast. On motion of Mr. Johnston, seconded by Mr. Logan, the nomination was made unanimous.

The candidate, in accepting, stated that he had faced a majority of 447 in 1906 and reduced it to 246 and still further reduced it to 146 in the election three years ago. With the present favorable conditions it should be possible to wipe out this small margin and place West Lambton safely in the Conservative column.

DUEZ FOUND GUILTY

Embezzled Over a Million From the French Government.

Paris, June 23.—Ferdinand Edmond Duez, receiver for the dissolved railway companies, convicted by a jury today of embezzling $1,200,000. He was sentenced to twelve years' imprisonment at hard labor.

Charles Broder, a lawyer, and Henri Lefebvre, a clerk, were convicted of aiding and abetting Duez in the embezzlement, and were sentenced to five years' imprisonment, which was suspended, pending good conduct.

Duez was judicial administrator of the civil tribunal of the department of the Seine. He was in charge of the liquidation of the property of thirteen of the railway companies dissolved by the association law of 1901.

In March, 1910, Duez confessed to the embezzlement of $2,000,000, and was held for twelve months in a court charged with breach of trust and forgery.

The total value of the properties Duez was liquidating had been appraised at $212,000,000, and the Government expected that they would yield $200,000,000, out of which the old age pensions voted by Parliament could be paid.

COMES A TIME

When Coffee Shows What It Has Been Doing.

"Of late years coffee has disagreed with me," writes a nation from Rome, N. Y.

"His lightest punishment being to make me 'lousy' and dizzy, and it seemed to thicken up my blood. The heaviest was when it upset my stomach completely, destroying my appetite and making me nervous and irritable, and sent me to my bed. After one of those attacks, in which I nearly lost my life, I concluded to quit the coffee and try Postum.

"It went right to the heart of the matter. I found it not only a most palatable and refreshing beverage, but a food as well. All my ailments, the 'lousiness' and dizziness, the unsatisfactory condition of my blood, my nervousness and irritability disappeared in short order and my sorely afflicted stomach began to recover. I began to rebuild and have steadily continued until now. Have a good appetite and am rejoicing in the fact that I owe to the use of Postum." Name given by Canadian Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Windsor, Ontario.

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in packages. "There's a Reason."

Never read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine true, and full of human interest.

CANADIAN LOCOMOTIVE
COMPANY TO ENLARGE
THEIR PLANTCompany Will Issue Million and a Half Bonds and Three Million and a Half Stock.

The remarkable railway development of Canadian railways has enormously increased the demand for locomotives of ever-increasing size, power and cost. The demand is one of the most certain in any line of manufacture.

There is a big field for a larger and up-to-date locomotive building plant in Canada—the present plant of the Canadian Locomotive Company, of Kingston, is entirely inadequate to handle its orders, and just now there are contracts in sight which would keep an augmented plant busy until the end of 1913. The owners of the company, a powerful syndicate of English and Canadian capitalists—intend to enlarge the works so as to cope with the increasing demands for locomotives. The new plant will be built on a site not much over 75 engines a year—depending on the type required, and many valuable contracts have been obtained owing to the company's ability to deliver. It is now intended to double the capacity of the plant, and perhaps triple it.

To enable them to make this expansion the company are issuing one million and a half of first mortgage, 6 per cent gold bonds. One million and a half 7 per cent convertible preferred, and two millions common stock. There will remain in the treasury half a million of bonds to be used for further extensions.

Being exempt from taxation, and with little danger from labor troubles, as explained in President Hart's letter, it is an exceptionally favorable position to manufacture most profitably.

The company's premises occupy three blocks in the city of Kingston, having a street frontage of 865 feet by a depth of about 255 feet to a frontage on Lake Ontario of about 175 feet—the area involved being 355,000 square feet. There are about a dozen buildings, including one of the finest power plants in the country, a magnificent erecting shop with huge travelling cranes, boiler-shops, riveting-shops, machine-shops, tank-shops, tender-shops, blacksmith-shops, foundry and pattern rooms, paint-shops and carpenter-shops. The company has its own branch railway line in Kingston, and its own wharves and docking facilities on Lake Ontario.

SPLENDID ATTRACTIONS

Western Fair Visitors Will Witness Some Grand Spectacles.

Secretary Hunt, of the Western Fair, is a very busy man these days, and will continue busy until the big exhibition, which opens on Sept. 8 and closes Sept. 16, is over.

"We are making splendid progress with the arrangements for the fair," Mr. Hunt told The Advertiser today, "and I think I can confidently say the show of 1911 will be the best ever held."

Further conversation with the secretary brought out the fact that the splendid attractions this year will be ahead of anything of the kind ever seen in Canada.

Prominent among these are the aerial ladders, a thrilling act, giving a good idea of the advance of aerial navigation. Londoners and the people of Western Ontario have not yet been given an opportunity of witnessing anything of this kind, and to the vast majority of visitors this act will be entirely new.

Another of the unique features is the pantomime dog act, which is an exceedingly clever and highly amusing animal entertainment. This is a feature that will appeal to old as well as young.

In addition there will be a score or more of standard attractions, all the artists being the best in their peculiar lines.

Arrangements have been completed for a grand military tattoo and musical ride every afternoon and evening. Detachments from local corps of boys' scouts taking part, and there will be a magnificent display of fireworks every evening.

There will be music bands, three of Canada's best bands having been engaged.

The midway, always a point of attraction to visitors, will be larger than ever, and the various shows the best procurable.

Applications for booth and refreshment privileges must this year be made to the Western Fair office, corner Richmond and Corbin streets, London, Ontario, and not to the fair office, as formerly. This will no doubt prove more convenient to those desiring concessions.

GEORGE LIKES BOOKS
BETTER THAN BRIDGEThe King and Queen Essentially
Middle Class, Declares Daily
News Editor.

[Canadian Press.]
London, June 23.—An interesting character sketch of King George by the editor of the Daily News is printed this morning, in which he describes the King as essentially a sailor, and a man of the middle class who loves to be among his people.

The King's comradeship with the common people, says the editor, is not an elaborate pretence to gain an end, but springs from a genuine fellow-feeling and a desire to win their goodwill, although he is fully conscious that he lacks his father's royal road to their hearts.

While Edward's orbit was the continent of Europe, George V. is the first king of Greater Britain. Edward was a sportsman, almost a sportsman, Edward was a diplomat, George is a simple and direct in thought and speech, with no subtlety or cunning in his intellectual composition. His tastes nearly all belong to the common people. Except for shooting, he has few sporting passions. He has no liking for games of chance, but prefers music and the drama in the old-fashioned form. Wagner bores him; the modern proven play, he finds cold. King George is not a chubbable man. His friendships are few, but firm.

The Queen also, like the King, has a middle-class seriousness and a sense of duty. She is almost the only woman in society who cannot be called "a society woman." Perhaps the court may be less gay than formerly, for the Queen prefers knitting to ceremony, and the King likes a book better than bridge, and his children better than either.

FRENCH CABINET OUT

Paris, June 23.—The Government
was defeated in the Chamber of Deputies today on a question relative to the supreme command of the army in case of war.

The deputies voted against the Government, and the cabinet is expected to resign. The Minister of War in the Senate last Tuesday that the present organization of the army does not provide for a commander-in-chief in time of war, the direction of operations in the case of war being in the hands of the Council of War and the generals of the army.

This amendment by the minister came in the nature of a revelation to many parliamentarians, and in the chamber, Deputy Messire expelled the Government on the subject and opposed the system of military control, as outlined by General Gouraud. The Government asked for a vote of confidence and failed to obtain a majority.

The sudden reverse to the Government was wholly unexpected.

The Ministry cabinet was formed on March 2 last, following the resignation of the Briand Ministry. On Feb. 2, General Gouraud, who became minister of war following the accidental death of Minister Berteaux, was recently quoted as saying that in the event of a crisis of state, had President, should have the supreme command.

by the Police.

Hiram Cushman, of Longwood station, was arrested Thursday and brought to the county jail on a charge of assault and battery. The complaint was laid by Hugh Constable Hughes, when the alleged assault was committed by Cushman on the person of Constable Hughes.

It is said that at each public holiday Cushman, who is a well-known pugilist, causes trouble among the residents.

He was bailed by Squire Chittick on $2,000, and expected that he will deliver himself up this afternoon to provide sureties to keep the peace.

A REAL DUEL

Madrid, June 23.—Lieutenant Don
Manuel Segura, who is on the editorial staff of the Debate, has just fought a duel with Don Luis Soria, vice-director of the Compania Madrileña de Urbanizacion.

The encounter was with sabres and was a most determined one, lasting one hour and fifteen minutes, but, owing to the skill of the combatants, no fatal wound was inflicted. Though the principals were reconciled and received many congratulations, the heavier the blows, the more protest have been made to the Bishop of Madrid against the editorial staff of the Debate, which is a Catholic paper, and the cause of one of its writers fought this duel.

The protestors ask the bishop to take measures against the Debate, or at least to compel it to drop its contention of being a Catholic organ, as, according to the Roman Church, duelling is a deadly sin, and this is the second time a member of the Debate's staff has fought, the other occasion being the encounter between Senor Olmet and Senor Bueno of the Radical.

Senor Soria was offended by an article published some days ago in the Debate, but could not challenge its author, Paul Masdieu Alvarez, a Quenob priest. He replied, therefore, in the Ciudad Real, a weekly review, stating his case and asserting that by such methods certain members of the Debate were endeavoring to destroy the personal responsibility of the Debate's staff. Senor Soria, who immediately appointed as his seconds Masdieu de Alcantara and Don Alonso Saavedra.

The seconds agreed upon an encounter with sabres, "El contraltio y punta," according to the Spanish custom, that is to say, using the point and the two ends of the weapon. The kind of duel, which any one in France can refuse, according to the rules of duelling, it is not a cavalry reason that no mortal wound was inflicted. In the fifth bout Senor Soria's

Disappearance in 1908.

[Canadian Press.]
Bridford, June 23.—On the strength of information given to the York County authorities in support of an allegation that Charles Wilmouth, a Saco lawyer, who disappeared in 1908, had been murdered, the sheriff arrested Joseph Buzzell, of Dayton, O.; Onley Miller and Mrs. Maud Snow, of Dayton, today. All three were taken to Afted, the two men to answer to charges of murder and the woman to a charge of having been an accomplice.

The authorities assume that information had been obtained from two persons whose names they withheld, and who claimed to have seen Wilmouth at Mrs. Snow's home. According to their story, as given out by the sheriff, Wilmouth's body was then placed in a box and buried. Officers today went to the alleged place of burial, near the Snow home in Dayton, to endeavor to locate the body.

LIFE PENALTY FOR

Youth, Hurt by a Brick,

Crimes.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 23.—Imprisonment for the remainder of his natural life in the Ionia Reformatory was the sentence passed by Judge McDonald Monday afternoon on John Wilson, the 19-year-old highway robber, who Saturday held up Miss Irene Crammond near Reed's Lake. This is the speediest justice handed out here in years. Wilson was taken on the train to Ionia last night.

Wilson, who is fully conscious that he is light to walk at the point of a revolver into the woods at the roadside, where he robbed her and mistreated her.

His case is interesting both to the pathologist and criminologist. At the age of 14 years Wilson was struck by a brick, which fell from the third story of a building in course of construction. Since then he has shown criminal tendencies on a question relative to the industrial home for boys at Lansing, but on being released immediately got into trouble.

In 1910 he was convicted of burglary and larceny, but drew a suspended sentence. In December of the same year he again robbed two stores. He was sentenced to five years at Ionia, but on the advice of physicians the sentence was recalled. An operation was performed in which a portion of the skull two inches square was removed and trephined with a silver plate. The youth seemed much improved, and his morose spells were less frequent. But Saturday the final outbreak came. It is probable Wilson may be transferred to the asylum for the criminal insane.

He was sentenced to five years at Ionia, but on the advice of physicians the sentence was recalled. An operation was performed in which a portion of the skull two inches square was removed and trephined with a silver plate. The youth seemed much improved, and his morose spells were less frequent. But Saturday the final outbreak came. It is probable Wilson may be transferred to the asylum for the criminal insane.

SPLENDID ATTRACTIONS

Western Fair Visitors Will Witness Some Grand Spectacles.

Secretary Hunt, of the Western Fair, is a very busy man these days, and will continue busy until the big exhibition, which opens on Sept. 8 and closes Sept. 16, is over.

"We are making splendid progress with the arrangements for the fair," Mr. Hunt told The Advertiser today, "and I think I can confidently say the show of 1911 will be the best ever held."

Further conversation with the secretary brought out the fact that the splendid attractions this year will be ahead of anything of the kind ever seen in Canada.

Prominent among these are the aerial ladders, a thrilling act, giving a good idea of the advance of aerial navigation. Londoners and the people of Western Ontario have not yet been given an opportunity of witnessing anything of this kind, and to the vast majority of visitors this act will be entirely new.

Another of the unique features is the pantomime dog act, which is an exceedingly clever and highly amusing animal entertainment. This is a feature that will appeal to old as well as young.

In addition there will be a score or more of standard attractions, all the artists being the best in their peculiar lines.

Arrangements have been completed for a grand military tattoo and musical ride every afternoon and evening. Detachments from local corps of boys' scouts taking part, and there will be a magnificent display of fireworks every evening.

There will be music bands, three of Canada's best bands having been engaged.

The midway, always a point of attraction to visitors, will be larger than ever, and the various shows the best procurable.

Applications for booth and refreshment privileges must this year be made to the Western Fair office, corner Richmond and Corbin streets, London, Ontario, and not to the fair office, as formerly. This will no doubt prove more convenient to those desiring concessions.

MAKES TROUBLE WHEN A HOLIDAY OCCURSHiram Cushman Taken Into Custody
by the Police.

Hiram Cushman, of Longwood station, was arrested Thursday and brought to the county jail on a charge of assault and battery. The complaint was laid by Hugh Constable Hughes, when the alleged assault was committed by Cushman on the person of Constable Hughes.

It is said that at each public holiday Cushman, who is a well-known pugilist, causes trouble among the residents.

He was bailed by Squire Chittick on $2,000, and expected that he will deliver himself up this afternoon to provide sureties to keep the peace.

A REAL DUEL

Madrid, June 23.—Lieutenant Don
Manuel Segura, who is on the editorial staff of the Debate, has just fought a duel with Don Luis Soria, vice-director of the Compania Madrileña de Urbanizacion.

The encounter was with sabres and was a most determined one, lasting one hour and fifteen minutes, but, owing to the skill of the combatants, no fatal wound was inflicted. Though the principals were reconciled and received many congratulations, the heavier the blows, the more protest have been made to the Bishop of Madrid against the editorial staff of the Debate, which is a Catholic paper, and the cause of one of its writers fought this duel.

The protestors ask the bishop to take measures against the Debate, or at least to compel it to drop its contention of being a Catholic organ, as, according to the Roman Church, duelling is a deadly sin, and this is the second time a member of the Debate's staff has fought, the
