St. Patrick's Day was celebrated at Miramichi, as in this City, by a Roman Catholic Tectotal Procession, which, according to the account in the Gleaner of Tuesday last, must mass at the Catholic Chapel in Chatham, the procession was formed, and paraded through several streets in the town, crossed the ice to Douglastown, through which they passed, as well as Newcastle, and again crossed the ice to Nelson, where an address was presentice to Nelson, where an address was presentice in St. Patrick's Chapel to the Rev. Mr. Eagan, to which a feeling and appropriate reply was returned. The procession then started on their return to Chatham, and halted opposite Newcastle, where the Indians who were in the ranks marched out and parhave been a splendid affair. After hearing mass at the Catholic Chapel in Chatham, the who were in the ranks marched out and took of refreshment which had been provided for them, the remainder of the procession proceeded to Chatham — About 1800 persons walked in the ranks; eleven appropriate banners and flags of various colours were display ed, the bearers wearing scarfs and rosettes of different colours. The scene was enlivened by the performances of the Chatham Amateur Band, who were seated in a vehicle drawn by two grey and two black horses.
