At the close of a recent week-night service of the First Baptist Church of Gloucester, Mass., the Pastor, Rev. Denton J. Neily, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Neily of this town, was presented with an angel birthday cake, and a purse of gold. It was Mr. Neily's 36th birthday anniversary, his tenth wedding anniversary and the sixth anniversary of the beginning of his pastorate of the Gloucester Church. Mr. Neily after recovering from the genuine surprise thanked the church for the gifts, for the kind words which had been expressed in a letter of congratulation from the church, which he believed indicated the feeling of friendship which existed between himself and the church and the good feeling of which these were merely the expression.

Mr. Loring closed his work here last Sunday and left for his new field on Monday. During his stay here he made many friends who while regretting his departure wish him all possible success.

DIED

HERVEY—Killed in action on the 19th April, in France, Charles Bernard Lambigh Hervey, Canadian Expeditionary Force, second and dearly beloved son of Cutbert L. G. and Mrs. Hervey of Round Hill, and grandson of the late Rev. George Hervey of London, England, aged eighteen years.

AUTUMN LEAF REBEKAH LODGE "AT HOME"

Nearly one hundred members and guests assembled in the I. O. O. F. Hall on Monday evening for the "At Home" given by the members of Autumn Leaf Rebekah Lodge. The Hall was very prettily decorated by a committee under the efficient leadership of Mrs. F. V. Young. The Oddfellows entered the room in a body escorted by Miss Lillian Newcombe, while Miss Burbage presided at the piano. Miss Mary Craig, Noble Grand, of Autumn Leaf welcomed the guests and after they had been seated announced the following program:

Solo.—Mr. F. V. Young.
Reading.—Mrs. Milford Hopkins.
Vocal Duett.—Misses Edna Burns and Edna Fulmer.

Mrs. Fred E. Bath, Past Grand, then took charge of the program and distributed conundrums around the room. Twenty minutes were allowed for guessing these, and at the close prizes were presented to the winners, Mrs. F. C. Simpson and Dr. A. A. Dechman. Booby prize was awarded to Mrs. C. L. Piggott and Mr. Kenneth Dickie.

A peanut hunt was next announced and the prize for finding the most was awarded to Miss Edna Cochran.

The remaining numbers of the program were then called for as follows: Piano Duett.—Mrs. A. F. Little and Miss Una Cameron.

Dialogue.—Mrs. F. E. Bath and Mrs. W. A. Warren, "Joint Householders." Male Quartette.—Messrs. F. V. Young, R. W. W. Purdy, W. Cook and A. C. Charlton.

At the close of the program ice cream and cake were served, and speeches by the visitors brought to a close one of the most pleasant "At Homes" ever held in Bridgetown.

Reports are in circulation to the effect that Canada is shortly to adopt conscription. These are altogether misleading. There is no prospect whatever that conscription in any form will be the order in the Dominion.

WOOL CARDING

Anyone having wool for carding which they wish shipped to me may leave their bundles at the same place as in former years. Anyone in a hurry for their rolls had better send along their wool at once. Those putting in wool for bates should place a tag on the outside of the bundle, marking it "Wool for Bats," and your name and residence. It would be safer also to put your name on the inside of the bundle to insure safe arrival.

Yours truly, JOHN CARR.

Lequille, Annapolis—4-2

CONGOLEUM RUGS

Ideal for the living room

Congoleum Rugs have aided in solving what was a perplexing problem to many housewives—how to make the living room cheerful at moderate cost.

Congoleum Rugs are made by a new and wonderful process. They do not fade in the sun, lie flat without fastening and never "kick up". To clean them, wash them for they are waterproof. Congoleum Rugs are a remarkable value.

This shows Congoleum Rug No. 32. The colors are Pompeian red with two shades of tan and forest green giving a quiet Oriental effect.
