

Particular Intentions

BUFFALO, N. Y.; Miss Sara I. M'Namara: "Please, remember Miss Maria Rooney in your prayers. Indeed she is badly in need of help. If her request is granted through the intercession of Good Saint Anne, she will publish it in the Annals."

CAIRO, ILL.; J. S.: "O Good Saint Anne, I beg of your mercy, if it be the holy will of God, to cure me, a poor mother of a large family, of all my diseases and to strengthen my lungs. If I recover, I promise to have a High Mass sung and have the fact published in your Annals!"

CROGHAN, N. Y.; L. Rouchel, M. D.: "A woman suffering from an affection of her ears, which causes deafness."

MEMONING, MICH.; Napoléon Carto: "The cure of my husband who is quite ill, and the doctor says that, if he does not stop smoking, he will surely die."

MONTREAL; Miss Mary J. Hussey: "Please, pray for my sister, who has been taken very ill, when we were going to Sainte Anne de Beaupré...."

POSSONEY, ONT.; Miss Alice Agnes O'Brien: "Please, remember me in your prayers. I wish to recommend a very special intention. I was to Saint Anne this summer, but could not yet get the favor."

TYLER, N. DAK.; Mrs. Julia Connolly: "I recommend my son, Frank Connolly, now a soldier in the Philippian Islands, that he may have good health while there and a safe return."

VIRDEN, MAS.; Margaret Stens: "There is a friend of mine, who is a Protestant. She has been blind for fifteen years and would like to be cured by Saint Anne de Beaupré. She wishes the assistance of your prayers and has promised to turn Catholic if she gets cured...."

WEST SUPERIOR, WIS.; "Mrs John McGraw: "I am very sick with fever and chills. O Good Saint Anne, I want you to cure me!" — B. J.: "Be so kind as to breathe a prayer for the conversion of a soul, that is beginning to lose faith. I promise to publish it in the Annals if Saint Anne hears my prayers." — Miss Nellie Northup: "Please, pray for my health. I am one of your Members." — "I ask: that Saint Anne may direct two parents to bring up their children in a manner pleasing to God. — That she may assist two persons in their undertakings, and bless the same. — That she may be our special protectress, and keep us from all dangers. — That she may bless two homes, and make the inmates healthy and happy." — "O Good Saint Anne! please, cure a person afflicted with sore throat. Also grant the grace of conversion to my brother's wife and to all sinners."

OTHER INTENTIONS: the cure of heart trouble: 2. — The cure of throat trouble: 1. — The cure of an afflicted side: 1. — The recovery of sight and hearing: 1. — Several conversions and vocations. — A few special temporal and spiritual intentions.

