

did, but we may all fill just as big a place in God's sight, simply by doing what they did, being faithful Christian boys and men wherever we are, on the farm, in the mine, the workshop, school, or mission field.

True greatness is meekness, lowliness, unselfishness, helpfulness, trusting Christ and trying with His help to live in some little way as He did, to live His life over again.

SIR WILLIAM DAWSON.