George A. McDonald is now a household name in Nova Scotia by reason of his being Manager of the Baptist Book Room. He is eldest son of Deacon McDonald; was baptized by Pastor Goucher in 1869 and joined the N. B. Church. He was a fruit from the school which has been so abundant in conversions. About 1871 he became teacher of the Primary class and is still filling this position. Some 600 different children have sung and learned of Jesus in his class, and not one has forgotten their enthusiastic and faithful instructor. He is one of the founders of the B. Y. P. U. in N. S., and has filled various offices in the church and district societies. He is Past President of the Maritime Union; also Clerk of our church, and glad to welcome strangers here or at the Book Room, Granville Street.
