"A. L. O. E. (Miss C. M. Tucker) may be termed a writer of sanctified fiction. There have been many of these, yet, judging by the hold her stories have had upon the youthful mind, she has been queen of them all. Gifted with the genius and possessed of the arts of the popular novelist, she knew how to catch attention and hold it. Her productions were characterized by ingenuity of plot and happiness of diction. But she was not content with endeavouring simply to entertain. The spiritual profit of the reader was the prime purpose, and all else was bent to that end. Her work shows that she acutely comprehended child nature. Some writers tell a story with no inherent instruction, and append a moral. The child reads the story, skips the moral, and is nothing profited. Miss Tucker interweaves the two so that they cannot be separated. Every turn in her narratives illustrates some important truth or enforces some valuable lesson."—Daily Witness.
