

The School is Delighted

with the addition to its Library. We were so well pleased with the books sent us for selection that we determined to retain all of them. Such words as these we hear from Sunday Schools who have entrusted us with their orders.

THE LONG WINTER EVENINGS

have come upon us, and is it not time to see that your Library is replenished, so that good reading may be provided for these long, quiet evening hours. What charming hours may be spent in the company of such delightful authors as Annie S. Swan, "Pansy," Amelia E. Barr, Worboise, Alcott, Everett-Green, Hesba Stretton, Prentiss, Stowe, Henty, Ballantyne, Kingston, Withrow, Hocking, Jackson Wray, Garrett, Holland, and a host of other popular writers.

HOW TO GO ABOUT IT.

If you cannot make a visit to the Book Room to choose from our richly laden shelves, we will be pleased to make a satisfactory selection for you, asking that you give us the following points :

1. The number of books desired.
2. The names of any special books desired.
3. The number of books desired for each grade—Senior, Intermediate, and Primary.
4. The amount of money you desire to spend.
5. Full shipping directions.

Also (if intended as an addition to an old library),

6. An alphabetical list of books already in the library.

We have an unsurpassed collection of the latest and best books of the Religious Tract Society, Nelson & Sons, the London Conference Office (Charles H. Kelly), Oliphant, Anderson & Ferrier, Nisbet & Co., Ward, Lock & Co., Blackie & Son, and other reputable houses. We are prepared to send to any School in Ontario a quantity of books from which to select as many volumes as they may wish to purchase.
