P. G. MCGREGOR, Treasurer.

Rest and be silent ! For faithfully listening,
 Patiently waiting, thine eyes shall behold
 Pearls in the waters of quietness glistening,
 Treasures of promise that He shall unfold.
 Rest and be silent ! for Jesus is here,
 Calming and stilling each ripple of fear.
 —F. R. Havergal.

A few remarks on the above figures may not be out of place.
 I. During 1883 several sums due on 1882 have been paid, making the balance on hand for 1882, larger than on the statement given a year ago. Some fifteen or twenty dollars is yet expected on that year so that receipts for 1882 will exceed expenditure by over one hundred dollars, and paying two thirds of the adverse balance on the first year.
 II. There will yet be paid on 1883 over two hundred dollars. The probability is that the receipts for the year will exceed the expenditure by that amount, leaving after all the deficit in the first year is paid, a balance for the Foreign Mission
