

THE DRUNKARD'S FAREWELL.

Music—"Watchman! tell us of the night."

Arranged for the "Advocate" by L. F. L. SUT, Dunham, C. E.

Treble.

1. Fare - well drink so nigh and han - dy, Fare - well rum and gin and bran - dy,
 2. Fare - well face as red as crimson, Fare - well hats that have no runs on,
 3. Fare - well drunk - ing lads and lass - es, Fare - well windows without glass - es,

Tenor.

Fare - well huts that see all weathers, Fare - well beds that have no sea - thers,
 Fare - well coats, more holes than stitches, Fare - well rag - god vest and breeches,
 Fare - well floors that need a swab file, Fare - well yards that have no wood pile,

Treble.

Fare - well ways that I've for sa - ken, Fare - well tubs that have no ba - con,
 Fare - well brok - en chair and ta - bles, Fare - well dwellings worse than sta - bles,
 Fare - well bonds that I have bro - ken, Fare - well oaths that I have spok - en,

Tenor.

Farewell emp - ty pots and ket - tles, Fare - well cupboards that have no "vitals,"
 Farewell drunken song and ca - rol, Fare - well friends that love the bar - rel,
 Farewell landlords and bar - ten - ders, Far - ewell all blue - devil son - ders.

Chorus for last stanza.

Tenor.

Farewell landlords and bar - tenders, Farewell all blue - devil senders, Farewell all blue - do - vil senders.