

“AN interesting and instructive monthly publication.”—The Mercury, Quebec.

“A VERY creditable and entertaining Magazine.”—Morning Chronicle, Halifax.

“It is well printed on good paper, and contains a number of interesting articles.”—Ottawa Citizen.

“A VERY creditable and entertaining Magazine, its pages filled with instructive and interesting articles.”—Daily Echo, Halifax.

“THE first number of the CANADIAN INDIAN is to hand, and contains a number of useful and interesting articles. We wish our Indian friend every success.”—Canadian Church Magazine.

“THE Magazine is intensely interesting. It deals with the past and future of the Indians, and gives many useful facts. Until we took up this publication, we did not know that the largest pyramid in the world was not in Egypt, but in the United States.”—Regina Leader.

“THE first number of this monthly periodical has been received, and proves to be an interesting journal. It contains articles on the ethnology, philology, and archæology of our Indian tribes; also information on the present condition and future prospects of the Indians.”—Barrie Examiner.

EDITED with ability, care and judgment (by the Rev. E. F. Wilson and Mr. H. B. Small) and beautifully printed (by Mr. J. Rutherford, of Owen Sound), the new publication is in every way a credit to the country; and we trust it may secure the liberal support it deserves.”—Orillia Packet.

“WE commend it to all Christians and others interested in the well-being of the Indians of our land. The objects of the society are manifold, but the first in order, as given in the prospectus, is sufficient to call forth the sympathy of our readers, ‘to promote the welfare of the Indians.’ That certainly is Christ-like.”—Faithful Witness.

“To trace, by tradition and such pieces of his ancient handiwork as can be discovered, the changes the race has undergone; and to throw light on its early history while it is possible to secure anything that can do so, is a movement of the highest importance; and one to which this Magazine will devote its principal efforts.”—Saskatchewan Herald.

“THE CANADIAN INDIAN, a bright little illustrated magazine, edited by Rev. E. F. Wilson and H. B. Small, has been received, and we commend it heartily to all who are interested in that romantic and departing race. Mr. Wilson has been a life-long friend of the Indian, and a close observer of his habits and customs.”—The Week, Toronto.

“THE new venture is published under the auspices of the Canadian Indian Research Society, and as its name implies, appeals to those who are interested in our Canadian Indians, past and present. The little Magazine is full of information on its subject, and its illustrations, though not artistic, certainly help to make the letter-press more realistic.”—Evangelical Churchman, Toronto.

“THE history, character, manners, and customs of the Indians are passing away rapidly from us; and a vast deal of information which may still be gained and preserved will have gone beyond our reach, unless it is at once collected and placed on record. For this reason the Society deserves all support. The Magazine makes a very fair, if not a brilliant beginning.”—The Canadian Churchman, Toronto.

“WE have a word of welcome for the CANADIAN INDIAN, and a hearty appreciation of the work of the Society under whose auspices it appears. Their object, as stated in their constitution, is: ‘to promote the welfare of the Indians, to guard their interests, to preserve their history, traditions and folklore; and to diffuse information, with a view to creating more general interest in both their spiritual and temporal progress.’”—Owen Sound Advertiser.

“THE first number certainly bears out the title of the little journal, being devoted entirely to interesting and instructive notes on the aborigines of this part of the new world, or on questions directly connected with them. The Magazine deserves encouragement, as its prosperity will cause light to be thrown on many things that have been dark hitherto, and tend to perpetuate much that is worthy of permanency, and which would otherwise disappear, in the history of the race whom we have now almost entirely displaced.”—Toronto Globe.
