Several English and French Medical Gentlemen

And Their Opinions on Diseases.

HIGH SCIENTIFIC OPINIONS.

Several medical gentlemen from the English and French armies having recently become associated with M. Souville, of Paris, and ex-ado surgeon of the French army, at his International Throat and Lung Institute, Phillips' Square, Montreal, and 173 Church street, Toronto, where thousands of people are yearly treated successfully for diseases of the Head, Throat and Lungs by Spirometer the present opportunity is embraced of making known to the people of Canada this fact, and also the opinions of these specialist surgeons connected with the International Throat and Lung Institute on the symptoms attending the following prevalent and dreadful diseases, in language devoid of technical difficulties.

Hemorrhage of the Lungs.

As a general thing hemorrhage from the lungs is looked upon as a fatal symptom. True it is seldom patients recover from lung disease who have had severe hemorrhages without the help of a physician. Still many cases have recovered fully under properly directed treatment who have had several severe attacks of bleeding from the lungs. In the majority of cases the hemorrhage occurs early in the disease, and is consequently amenable to treatment. But when it occurs late in the course of the disease the prognosis is very unfavorable.

Consumption.

This dreadful disease is seldom developed in a few months. It is slowly and gradually creeping upon the patient, sometimes fortuitously, but often as a result of other diseases of the air passages of which the patient is perfectly cognizant, but foolishly allows to run and advance until the fatal disease, consumption, has the lungs so fairly grasped that no earthly power can restore them to health. After the positive symptoms of consumption have been developed, there is always an uncertainty in the prognosis. We find cases even advanced in the second stage, where recovery has taken place from proper treatment by inhalations suitable to the individual case and such constitutional treatment as the case demands. We also find cases in the first stage that the best directed skill cannot make any impression upon—hence the necessity of applying early, either before the disease has reached what we call consumption even in the first stage, or if that illness has already been reached, lose no time in applying for treatment to those who make a specialty of diseases of the air passages.

GRADUAL INCREASE OF THE CATHOLIC POPULATION.

The following interesting statement has been published by a Journal giving the gradual increase of the Catholic population throughout the world from the first century to the end of the year 1877.—First century, 500,000; second, 2,000,000; third, 5,000,000; fourth, 10,000,000; fifth, 15,000,000; sixth, 20,000,000; seventh, 25,000,000; eighth, 30,000,000; ninth, 40,000,000; tenth, 50,000,000; eleventh, 70,000,000; twelfth, 80,000,000; thirteenth, 85,000,000; fourteenth, 90,000,000; fifteenth, 100,000,000; sixteenth, 125,000,000; seventeenth, 185,000,000; eighteenth, 250,000,000; nineteenth, to the end of 1877, 300,000,000.

MARWOOD'S SUCCESSOR.

The sheriffs of London and Middlesex have selected a man to fill the post of public hangman, vacant by the death of Marwood. One of the many applicants they selected twenty of the most likely and requested the applicants to meet at the Central Criminal Court. Eighteen responded to the request, and two—Berry, of Bradford, and Taylor, of Lincoln, Marwood's assistant—were selected, and the question of their eligibility was adjourned for further consideration. The sheriffs afterward decided not to appoint either of these candidates, but summoned a man named Binn, by telegraph. They finally determined their selection in his favor. Bartholomew Binn, of Gateshead, is a man forty-three years of age and is a plaiter upon the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, residing in the Denton road, Dowsbury. In reply to inquiries he stated that he had not assisted at any execution, but had witnessed several. Marwood's successor is a thin, but strong and healthy looking, and stands about five feet nine inches.

CANADA AT THE FISHERIES EXHIBITION.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—The Globe despatch from London says by the official list of awards at the Fisheries Exhibition, Canada obtained gold medals for the best collection of cured tinned fish, shipped fish, salmon, deep sea fishing gear, fishing boats, scepters, whale oil signalling telegraph system, most complete breeding establishment, and steam fishing tug. The Dominion exhibit was also awarded five medals for distinct varieties of fish of commercial value, and also fifteen silver medals, six bronze medals and four diplomas. A special mention was also made in the award list about twelve other awards in reference to which decision has not been reached. Newfoundland obtained ten gold medals, eight silver medals, five bronze medals and three diplomas. An English collector of curiosities wants to buy the Pope's old gala coshies, and it seems that the Pope's business manager is quite ready to sell a magnificent railroad car made especially for Plo Nono, and only used once when he inaugurated a new line. This carriage is very richly decorated.

STRANGER THAN FICTION.

MRS. ELIZABETH MARTIN TELLS A REMARKABLE TALE OF HER WEDDED LIFE. (From the Chicago News.) Elizabeth Martin, a brunette, tall and stately, and of more than ordinary beauty, told a remarkable tale of her life with John Tift Martin, the evangelist, who has been performing such remarkable "faith cures" in Michigan, in the divorce court before Judge Tuley to-day. They were married in 1875, Martin being then a life insurance agent, and went to Elkhart, Ind., to live. There she says he pulled to pay their board bill, and they next went to Detroit. From there they journeyed to Toronto, Canada, her husband being afraid of being arrested in the United States on account of some money he had embezzled. In Toronto he had a lecture, entitled "The Ideal and Real of Scripture," written for him and tried to deliver it, but it was not popular. Their life in Canada consisted principally in moving from one boarding-house to another, Martin never paying a bill. Hence they went to Detroit and thence to Buffalo, a trail of unpaid board bills being the principal mark behind them.

In Buffalo Martin was arrested and his wife walked the streets that night seeking a place where she could lay her head. But he got out of his Buffalo trouble and went to New York, where he returned to the insurance business. They stayed there a year and during that time lived at twenty different places, Martin objecting to the paying of his bills, and the landlords being equally averse to keeping them more than a fortnight at a time. Finally they went to a home of any kind, and then the wife managed to get home to Chicago and seek refuge with her mother. Martin followed and went into the coal business, but his old habit of not paying bills stuck to him, and he soon fell into the habit of living entirely with his mother-in-law. The wife then went to California and escaped him. During all this time he treated her with cruelty. A copy of an Advertiser (Mich.) paper of late date was read in court, in which the efforts of "Rev." John Martin in an evangelistic work was described in two columns, and also an account of how he saved the life of a Miss Holmes at that place by paying beside her sick bed for a period of four hours. The decree was granted.

Two young French Canadians, priests of the Dominican Order, Fathers Cole, of L'Ange-Gardien, and Bellaire, of St. Charles de Bellechasse, have just returned to this country from Austria, where they have spent the last six years. It is their intention to enter the House of the Dominicans at St. Hyacinthe.
