

DU CHALLU'S GREAT WORK!

COMPLETED.

The Viking Age.—The early History, Manners and Customs of the ancestors of the English-speaking Nations. About 1400 illustrations from the antiquities discovered in Mounds, Cairns and Bogs, as well as from the ancient Sagas and Eddas. 2 handsome vols., 8vo., $8.50.

Mr. Paul Du Challu's great popular work is the product of many years of incessant labor in the collection and arrangement of facts which throw a flood of light upon the character of the progenitors of the English-speaking race. It is a book worthy of a place in every library of importance.

Sir William Dawson's New Book.

Hand-book of Geology, for the use of Canadian Students, by Sir J. Wm. Dawson, C.M.G., LL.D., of McGill University. 8vo., cloth, with numerous illustrations. $3.50.

Intended as a guide to Canadian Geology for private Students, Engineers and Travellers. Contents: General and Historical Geology, Canadian Topography and Geology, including Acadian Region, Quebec and Ontario, Manitoba and North-west, British Columbia, Arctic or Hudsonian and Terranovan or Newfoundland Regions.

The Story of the Nations—Rome, Greece, Chaldaea, Assyria, etc.—A series of concise and graphically written histories, by leading writers, adequately illustrated, and with maps and full indices. 25 vols. now ready. Each $1.50. Detailed prospectuses on application to WILLIAMSON & Co.

Chambers' Encyclopedia.—A Dictionary of Universal Knowledge. An entirely new and much improved edition of this excellent work. 10 vols. Cloth, with numerous maps and illustrations. Vols. I.-IV, now ready. Each, $3. Prospectuses on application. Subscribers' names received.

Every Canadian Boy and Girl should Read Black Beauty.—The story of Horse's Life as told by itself. By Anna Sewall. Cloth, 60c. Such an inspiring, beautiful, instructive story is rarely met with, and as it strongly inculcates kindness to animals, the great and kindly E. P. C. A. of London has given it strong commendation. Children will laugh and cry over the story of Beauty's Life, and they will also get a new and delightfully original view of life as seen from the horse's standpoint.

Three Entirely Worthy Native Books

The Birds of Ontario.—Over 300 varieties, described in a way to delight the ornithologist and to instruct and assist all who in any measure observe our feathered tribes. By Thomas McIlwraith, member of the Hamilton Association. Limited edition. Cloth, 319 pp. $1.50.

Includes a most valuable paper read before the Hamilton Ornithological Association on "Birds and Bird Matters." The book is the result of many years of close observation and study, and is pronounced by those able to judge as one of the best manuals issued on this continent.

Canadian Wild Flowers.—Being studies in Canadian Plant Life, by Mrs. C. P. Traill, with chromo-litho-illustrations, after designs by Mrs. Chamberlain. 8vo., cloth, $3.50. The combined names of Mrs. Traill and Mrs. Chamberlain give sufficient guarantee of the great excellence and value of this book.

A Notable Re-Issue.

Macaulay's History of England—Macaulay's Essays and Speeches—Macaulay's Life, by Trevelyan. Four compact vols. The Handy English edition, now offered at $3.50. This offers a rare opportunity for securing a good readable edition of Macaulay's Works at a very small price.
