

probably the first representative of the third generation to carry away a degree from Queen's. Mr. R. J. McPherson dates a subscription of $100 to Queen's on the fifth anniversary of his son's birth and expresses the hope that he may be the first representative of the fourth generation to go to the university of his fathers. When things like this happen Queen's is beginning to throw off her swaddling clothes, and is leaving her babyhood behind.

Two of our graduates are situated in Norwood High School. R. G. Lawlor, B.A., '02, as principal, and Harold McFarlane, '09, as one of the masters.

G. W. Hofferd, '08, and Miss Ethel Alford, '07, are two recent appointments to the staff of Peterborough Collegiate Institute.

A CALL TO DUTY.

Other papers all remind us,
We can make our own sublime,
If our fellow schoolmates send us
Contributions all the time.
Here a little, there a little
Story, Schoolmates, song or jest,
If you want a good school paper
Each of you must do his best.—Ex.

JUST LIKE US.

"I went to a reception given by the Y.M. and Y.W.C.A. Everybody was supposed to get acquainted. Everybody talked and shook hands just like Home-Coming or County Fair. I suspect that I was introduced to most a hundred people. Now, when I meet them in the hall they always speak, but I don't remember their names. If everybody would wear their school clothes to a reception, you would be able to recognize them when you meet them the next day. That night a lot of boys stood off in a corner by themselves, and I don't suppose that they had a good time. One of the girls said it was the mail department of the university. They were standing near the mail-box, so I guess she said it for a joke.—An extract from Willie's Letter Home, in the "Decaturian."

THE FRESHMAN'S PRAYER.

Now I lay me down to rest,
To have some sleep, I'll do my best;
If I should die before I wake,
The blame, the Sophomores will take.
For ever and ever. Amen.—O. A. C. Review.
