

The two Governments have agreed that when the Commission's report is received they will consider whether any examination of further measures which might alleviate the problem should be carried out, including extending the scope of the present Reference.

The Commission is requested to submit its report to the two Governments as soon as may be practicable."

The above text has been forwarded for Canada by the Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Honourable Paul Martin, to the Secretary of the International Joint Commission.