VISIT OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS TO WASHINGTON, SEPTEMBER 14, 1988

The Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Right Honourable Joe Clark, announced today that he would be visiting Washington on September 14 for discussions with the Honourable George Shultz, U.S. Secretary of State. This visit is one of the regular "quarterly meetings" which Mr. Clark has held with the U.S. Secretary since October 1984 and will cover international and bilateral questions of interest to the two governments.
