

Order, Privilege, Procedure.

ORDER, Personal.

Mr. Ogilvie calls Mr. Alexander to order for references to the Exchange Bank, 12.

Mr. Carvell calls Mr. Power to order for remarks upon the Government supporters, 35.

Mr. Dickey calls Mr. Plumb to order as there was no question before the House, 79.

Sir A. Campbell calls Mr. Alexander to order for referring to a previous debate, 85.

Mr. Alexander called to order by Sir A. Campbell for using improper language towards Mr. Plumb, 89.

Sir A. Campbell objects to Mr. Power speaking upon Mr. Alexander's Inquiry, 91.

Mr. Almon calls Mr. McInnes to order for irrelevant remarks, 137.

Mr. Power raises question of order as to decision of Speaker, 137.

Mr. Almon again objects to irrelevancy of Mr. McInnes' remarks, 141.

Mr. Ogilvie calls Mr. McInnes to order for reading irrelevant extracts, 141.

Mr. McInnes calls Mr. Ogilvie to order for personal remarks, 151.

Mr. Kaulbach calls Mr. Alexander to order for not speaking to the question, 152.

Sir A. Campbell calls Mr. Alexander to order for stating that he had used the word "foolish" in reference to Mr. McInnes, 152.

Mr. Power calls Mr. Alexander to order for personal remarks upon the Ministers, 153.

Sir A. Campbell calls Mr. Alexander to order for statements with reference to Sir David Macpherson and himself, 153.

Mr. Plumb moves that Mr. Alexander be no longer heard until he apologises for insulting remarks; Mr. Alexander apologises, 154.

Mr. Power calls Mr. Howlan to order or irrelevant remarks, 157.

Mr. McInnes calls Mr. Plumb to order for making inaccurate statements affecting himself, 162.

Mr. McInnes calls Mr. Plumb to order for imputing motives to him, 165.

Mr. Alexander called to order for using unparliamentary language, 192.

Mr. Montgomery calls Mr. Alexander to order for irrelevant remarks, 193.

Mr. Plumb calls Mr. Alexander to order for unparliamentary language, 193 and 194.

Mr. Botsford calls Mr. Alexander to order for irrelevant remarks, 205.

Mr. Haythorne objects to Mr. Howlan being so frequently interrupted in his speech, 229.

Mr. Kaulbach objects to Mr. Howlan's remarks as being irrelevant, 229.

Mr. Alexander called to order by Mr. Botsford for not speaking to the motion, 279.

Mr. Almon calls Mr. Gowan to order for irrelevant remarks, 280.

Mr. Power calls Mr. Plumb to order for using certain language towards him, 291.

Mr. Kaulbach calls Mr. Alexander to order for not speaking to the question, 304.

Mr. Alexander calls Mr. Plumb to order for wandering from the question, 339.

Mr. Haythorne calls Mr. Plumb to order for introducing irrelevant matter, 340.

Mr. Kaulbach called to order by Mr. Power for imputing motives, 394.

Mr. Plumb calls Mr. McInnes to order for making charges against the Government, 399.

Mr. Botsford calls Mr. Alexander to order for abusive language, 409.

Mr. Plumb calls Mr. Alexander to order for making false statements, 426.

Mr. Plumb calls Mr. Alexander to order for unparliamentary language, 487.

Mr. Almon calls Mr. Trudel to order for speaking more than once, 490.

Mr. Dever calls Mr. Howlan to order for taxing and vexatious remarks, 492.

Mr. Ogilvie calls Mr. Alexander to order for attacking the Government, 509.

Mr. McInnes calls Mr. Ogilvie to order for incorrect statements, 551.

Mr. McInnes calls Mr. Ogilvie to order for irrelevant remarks, 551.

Mr. McInnes calls Mr. Flint to order for personal imputations, 555.

Mr. McInnes calls Mr. Plumb to order for imputing motives, 560.

Mr. Botsford calls Mr. McInnes to order for irrelevant remarks, 562.

Mr. Carvell calls Mr. McInnes to order for attacking officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway, 562.

Mr. Botsford calls Mr. McInnes to order for unparliamentary language, 563.

Mr. Botsford calls Mr. Alexander to order for personal remarks, 589, 590.

Mr. Power calls Mr. Smith to order for speaking twice on a motion for return, 601.

Mr. Botsford calls Mr. Alexander to order for personal insinuations, 604.

Mr. Alexander called to order for speaking to wrong motion, 733.

Mr. Scott calls Mr. McInnes to order for referring to Senators as hirelings of the C. P. R. Company, 738.

Mr. McInnes calls Mr. Ogilvie to order for speaking without a motion, 743.