And debate continuing on the main motion;

Mr. Macdonald (Rosedale), seconded by Mr. Chrétien, moved in amendment to the said proposed motion,—That the motion be amended by inserting therein, immediately after the words “Criminal Code” the following words:

“on a trial basis for a period of five years”.

And debate arising thereon;

By unanimous consent, it was ordered,—

1. That this sitting of the House continue until 11.30 o'clock p.m.,
2. That no division be taken during this period.
3. That this day's adjournment proceedings be deferred and retain precedence.

Debate was resumed on the motion proposed by Messrs. Byrne, Nugent, Scott (Danforth) and Stanbury,—That it is expedient to introduce a measure to amend the Criminal Code for the purposes of

- (a) abolishing the death penalty in respect of all offences under that Act;
- (b) substituting a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment in those cases where the death penalty is now mandatory; and
- (c) providing that no person upon whom a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment is imposed shall be released from imprisonment without the prior approval of the Governor in Council;

And on the proposed motion of Mr. Macdonald (Rosedale) seconded by Mr. Chrétien, in amendment thereto.

That the motion be amended by inserting therein, immediately after the words “Criminal Code” the following words:

“on a trial basis for a period of five years”.

And debate continuing;

By unanimous consent, the House reverted to “Motions”.
