

R. N. Morgan, Esq., .- 2 -

while she was in full possession of all her faculties. She suffered no pain whatever and I can imagine no more pleasant way of passing out than sleeping away surrounded by one's loved ones.

I hope that some time I may have the good fortune to see you again.

With the very kindest wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,