

The Rossin House, Toronto.

THE ROSSIN HOUSE is the largest, best furnished, best ventilated, and best managed hotel in the Province of Ontario; also the most central first-class hotel in Toronto, being situated on the corner of King and York streets, only two blocks from Union Depot.

Owing to its increased patronage, the Hotel Company have enlarged the ROSSIN by an addition of 75 elegantly furnished rooms, en suite, with baths.

The ROSSIN HOUSE enjoys the reputation of being patronized by more distinguished English, American and Foreign visitors than any other hotel in the city. We might mention among many others the Prince of Wales, Duke of Edinburgh, Prince Leopold, also two ex-Presidents of the United States.

Prices are graduated according to location of the rooms.
