

CONTENTS.

v

Page		Page
115	Allowance of provisions, &c.	172
119	Commence travelling over the Ice	173
122	Method of carrying the instruments, and of
126	selecting the best road	178
	Very laborious travelling	187
129	Mackintosh's water-proof canvass	191
133	No appearance of large or level Ice	195
	A rare bird (the Ross gull) seen	204
138	The Ice very dangerous for the provisions	206
	One of the boats nearly upset	208
142	Meteorological observations, 17th July	216
147	Kill a seal	219
148	Snow-blindness	220
150	One of the boats nearly upset	221
153	Northerly wind commences	222
	Considerable southerly drift perceived	224
155	Providentially escape the loss of our provisions,
	by the Ice breaking	225
158	A second seal killed	226
161	Brilliant prismatic colours reflected from the snow-crystals	227
	Still no fields of Ice to be seen	229
162	A beautiful phenomenon, consisting of six fog-
166	bows	231