OTTAWA, Jan. 3.—Connaught Park Jockey Club will increase its stakes by nearly $10,000 for this season.

Manager Robinson announced yesterday that this would be the case, the large increase being mainly due to the new $2500 Merchant's Stake and the Directors' Futurity, with $3000 hung up. The Merchant's Stake race is to be put on during the spring and fall months, and for the purpose of attracting the entries in the big $2500 Derby to Ottawa. The amount of the American turf will be seen in the big race at Dorval, and many of the entries in the big race will likely start here in the Merchant's Stake. There will be five stakes at each meet this year.

QUELPH BEAT BERLIN.

QUELPH, Jan. 4.—Berlin intermediates squeezed out a 3 to 2 victory Saturday night in the first game played on Quelphe ice this season. Although not in the best of condition both teams played a fast brand of hockey. The game was nip and tuck all the way, the Germans having a shade the best of the argument. Allen, the Quelphe rover, was easily the best man on the ice and played a splendid game. Solomon, Berlin's centre, was also good.

THE LINE-UP WAS AS FOLLOWS:

Referee: Allan Kinder, Preston.

KING BRYSON BREAKS RECORD

Wins Unfinished Trot at Hillcrest Park, Lowering His Own Time on the Ice Tracks—Results.

Dr. Black's King Bryson proved much the best in the unfinished 2 1/4 trot at the closing event of the Toronto Driving Club's ice races on Saturday afternoon. He won the sixth and seventh heats in fine style, and incidentally made the fastest trotting time for the mile ever made at Hillcrest.

In the first heat the betting favored King Bryson on account of his performance in the last heat on Friday, and Vaster was second choice. Bryson took the lead and was always ahead, winning by three lengths. Vaster and Monarchial Lady driving home second and third.

Many fancied Vaster in the seventh and final heat, but King Bryson again took the lead and trotted a beautiful mile. Little Lee trotted in second place for the half, but broke at the three-quarter mark. Vaster and Monarchial Lady drove Vaster all out in the stretch and for a short time it looked as if he would catch the leader, but Bryson was not to be denied and came home two lengths ahead. Vaster being second money and Monarchial Lady third.
