

ring. Graham Lodge has, during the year, added thirty-seven to its membership.

And now, brethren, in conclusion, and in retiring from this high office which I have held for the past three years, I wish to thank you all for the trust and confidence you have reposed in me, and to say to you how highly I appreciate the uniform courtesy and kindness I have ever experienced at your hands and to bespeak a continuance of the same for my successor.

We do not all see alike, and I have no doubt but that I have, in the course of the past three years often made mistakes, but I claim this one thing, that the best interests of the Order have always been my aim, and no matter what position I may hereafter occupy I shall continue to do what I can toward increasing the prosperity and extending the usefulness of our beloved Institution.

Faternally yours,

GEORGE W. FOWLER,

Grand Master of New Brunswick.

Dated at Fairville, N. B., February 21st, 1894.

Moved by W. Bro. H. H. Pitts and seconded by W. Bro. Rev. J. E. Flewelling that a committee of seven be appointed, consisting of W. Bros. P. E. Heine, J. G. Atkinson, R. D. Wilmot, William Anderson, David Hipwell, E. A. Blakney and G. R. Vincent, to take into consideration the R. W. Grand Master's address.

Motion carried.

Moved by R. W. Bro. James Kelly and seconded by R. W. Bro. Forbes Reid that a press committee be appointed.

Motion carried, after having been discussed at length by R. W. Bros. McLean, A. J. Armstrong, P. E. Heine, J. S. McLaren and Wm. Roxborough.

On motion of W. Bro. Wm. Roxborough, seconded by R. W. Bro. R. A. C. Brown, the following brothers