WHEAT PRICES DOWN TO LOWEST THIS SEASON

Big Receipts in Northwest Send All Options Lower at Chicago—Steady Liquidation Under Way—Corn at Irregular Prices.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Wheat prices today made a new low record for the season, 50¢ for December delivery, the market suffered from the pressure of big receipts northwest. Latest sales showed a decline of 1-2¢ to 5-8¢ net, cash closed 3-8¢ down to 3-8¢ advance, and 1-4¢ to 1-4¢ below last night's level. Provisions closed 2-12¢ down to 1-4¢.

Wheat longs here kept up a steady rate of liquidation sales as a result of word that 3,000,000 bushels of new wheat had been hedged today in Minneapolis and that 1,500,000 loaded for export, scheduled to arrive in Duluth Monday. Seaboard sales of 75,000 bushels of wheat and the engaging of a vessel for 50,000 more loads failed to bring about more than feeble rallies.

Numerous reports or corn firing in dry hot sections southwest influenced some heavy buying of corn. There was some active cash demand from the east. Many speculators, however, sold on account of generally good crop prospects. The uptick was irregular and liquidation with many deliveries finishing steady and later options weak.

Oats held comparatively steady in consequence of fair export demand. Outlets limited touched by December were 4-8¢ and 3-1-4¢.

In the provision pit the average range of prices was sustained owing to the tight run of hogs here.

WESTERN FLOUR MILLS READY FOR NEW CROP

Lake of Woods Plant Resumes Operations—Quotations in Toronto Merely Nominal.

Dealers report that the stock of Manitoba grain at the lake ports has been pretty well cleaned up of late, so that there is very little available at the present time. The new crop will not reach the market for some weeks yet, meanwhile quotations will remain purely nominal. Nothing is coming out from the Ontario farmer, and consequently the market is merely a waiting one pending the incoming of actual offerings.

Winnipeg reports that trading in flour continues to keep up its activity, although none of the mills are yet getting a new crop. Cars are coming on the market each day, and by the middle of the month the mills will be using the new product. The Lake of the Woods Milling Company's mill at Portage la Prairie, which has been shut down for the past two months, started up this week, and will increase its capacity by 15,000 barrels. Their mills in Keewatin, which have been closed down for some weeks, will begin operations about the 20th of the month, when the capacity will be increased to 15,000 barrels. There is no change in prices until the middle of October.
