ACTIVE SERVICE MEN WILL GET POSITIONS

Policy of Militia Department is to Place Veterans in Chief Posts.

Placing of officers of the permanent force who have been on active service during the present war, it is stated, is Ottawa's new policy in appointing men to the chief administrative positions in all the military districts in Canada. The district first to become subject to this new appointment policy is likely to be that of Toronto. It is being predicted that within the next month practically all the higher-up officers will have left Toronto military headquarters, and that officers of the permanent force will be the new administrative heads.

Lt.-Col. C. C. Bennett, D.S.O., a permanent force officer, is now on his way to Toronto from Vancouver to take over the position of A.A.G. for Toronto district, which post Lt.-Col. J. Bennett is retiring from within the present month. New administrative heads will also have to be found for the medical services department of Toronto district, and for the D.A.A.G. and Q.M.G. department. Lt.-Col. E. S. Ryerson, D.S.O., the present officer commanding the medical services in Toronto, is resigning, and Lt.-Col. F. P. Healey, D.A.A.G. and Q.M.G., is going to Ottawa.

The supply and transport department of Toronto military district is already under command of a permanent force officer, Col. G. A. Douglas. He is also booked for the annual St. Andrew's concert, Ottawa, and for a concert at Massey Hall, Toronto.

SEPTEMBER IN ALGOQUIN PARK.

Algoquin Park is situated at an altitude of 2000 feet above the level of the sea. Two hundred miles north of Toronto and 170 miles west of Ottawa. The "Highland Inn," a charming hotel, affords most comfortable accommodation at reasonable rates. It is heated by steam, and grate fires add cheer to indoor pleasures. The "Highland Inn" is operated by the Grand Trunk Railway, and will close for the season on September 30, so make your reservations early and enjoy the few remaining days. Hand-somely decorated and descriptive literature telling you all about it from across the Grand Trunk, or C. E. Horning, district passenger agent, Toronto, Ont.

COURTS

CLAIMS THE MONEY FOR SERVICE GIVEN

Justice Middleton, in the non-jury assize court yesterday, heard the case of John H. Blanchard, a Boston attorney, vs. F. J. and E. T. Jacob of Toronto. The claim is for $9075, which amount is claimed by Blanchard for services rendered and on which cheque defendants stopped payment.

In 1916 defendants came to an agreement with a Boston firm to purchase a certain number of machines. However, the machines were found to be impracticable and were shipped back to the manufacturers. One of the defendants went to Boston to adjust the monetary differences which had arisen in the return of the machines, and upon refusing to pay the amount asked by the company he was arrested. He was visited by Blanchard, who is attorney for the company, and to obtain his freedom he gave Blanchard a cheque payment of which was afterwards stopped.

Now Blanchard claims when he accepted the money, he accepted it to secure Jacob's release, and not as an agent of the company.

Judgment in the case was reserved.

SAYS MONEY ADVANCED TO ROCKFORD COMPANY

Geo. Temple, solicitor, was the first witness heard yesterday at the resumption of the hearing of the action brought by R. T. and G. P. Hayden, and the Bank of Topeka, against Mackenzie and Mann, in connection with western land contracts.

Mr. Temple said he had been engaged by Mackenzie and Mann. He went to Calgary, and on leaving there some discrepancies were discovered in the Rockyford Land Company's assignment.

R. G. Thompson, secretary to the Rockyford Land Co., stated that company had been incorporated in June, 1912. A statement was produced showing that Mackenzie and Mann had advanced the company $148,044.29.

Sir Donald Mann was called in the afternoon and stated that it was not true that Coughlin had told him the Havens were interested in the deal. Sir Donald said positively that Coughlin told him that only Foley was interested in the deal.

In answer to A. C. McMaster as to whether he remembered the case, Sir Donald said: "I remember it. I never heard Hayden's name mentioned."

"Do you remember this conversation since 1912, notwithstanding the great number of affairs you have to deal with?"

"Was Foley known to you?"

"Yes."

The case is proceeding.

DISMISSED ACTION.

J. Bell, a teamster, sued the city for damages on account of being struck by a St. Clair avenue civic car on April 13. The jury in the case found both parties guilty of negligence, and recommended that $400 be paid to the plaintiff. However, Judge Coatsworth, before whom the case was tried, dismissed the action, with no damages.

RETURN TRUE BILLS.

True bills against the following were brought in by the grand jury yesterday: Lemuel H. Musa, wounding; William Nicholls, housebreaking; theft and receiving; Jack Pearl, false pretences; Samuel C. Brownstein, theft and receiving.

No bill was returned against David Ha-taman, charged with criminal negligence.

POLICY OF CHURCH TOWARDS SOLDIERS

Synod Appoints Committee to Bring in Recommendations.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED

Matters of General Interest and Far-Reaching Influence Dealt With.

At the morning session of the general synod of the Church of England yesterday a committee was appointed for the purpose of bringing in recommendations as to the church's best policy towards returned soldiers. The members appointed are Dean Starr, Mr. Justice Hodgins, R. W. Allen and Captain (Rev.) Kuhring.

In discussing the motion, Dean Starr said that lack of appreciation of the sacrifices made by these men had reflected very badly upon the church and the government. "We were all very critical in urging them to take up this admirable duty, but we have not even a godspeed for them when they relinquish their post in the army. The men are very bitter about it," he said.

D. Allen, who moved for the appointment of the committee, said that while the veterans could very materially assist the church by giving the benefit of their experiences, the church should do all in their power for the returned men.

Chancellor Davidson was appointed to replace J. G. Brock upon the executive council representing Montreal.

Greetings to Labor.
The presentation of a resolution to the effect that a deputation be appointed to convey greetings to the new labor congress caused some contention. Chancellor Davidson said he was in favor of the resolution, but pointed out that the church was at all times willing to assist organized labor.

Principal Vano declared that the congress was the regularly constituted Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.

The question of prohibition was taken up, and the following resolution passed after considerable discussion: The general synod heartily endorses the action of the government in seeking to restrict and eventually to abolish the liquor traffic, and calls upon all patriotic citizens to uphold its hand in this manner.

The Archbishop of Halifax said that at one time against the policy of total abstinence, he was now entirely for it. After a number of speakers had given their opinions, the majority in favor of the resolution was announced. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 10 to 2.

The Bishop of Huron said: "We support the measure not because it is a Christian method in freeing the country of evil, for it is not Christian, but because of the good that it will result."

Dr. Shearer, representing the Social Service Council of Canada, addressed the synod upon the needs of the work. He said that the church had a larger influence in social service work than the Church of England. In its general synod it was one of the most important and influential units.

work with Canon Tucker and Ven. Arthur C. Inglis, and would ask the continued co-operation of all members in this important branch of the church work.

There are 17 Dominion-wide bodies, and 11 provincial social service councils, the last of which was organized on Monday in Montreal, for the Province of Quebec.

Canada was staggered at the figures of 35,000 men lost during three years of war, but as many lives of children under five years of age were lost every year, due to the lack of care, and the necessities of the poor. Great educational work was needed if the child life was to be saved.

Canon Rexford spoke in favor of organized play centres for children.

The following resolutions were passed: The general synod heartily commends all wise efforts put forward to combat the white slave traffic, commercialized vice and venereal disease; it strongly recommends the establishment of preventive and rescue homes in all large centers of population; and it strongly urges that the young be kept themselves pure in thought, word and deed.

As much as the feeble-minded are the main sources of pauperism, crime and in all communities, the general synod would call upon governments and all in positions of authority to protect the feeble-minded, and as far as possible, to remove the cause of the evil from our midst.

The general synod heartily commends the Canadian Government on its courageous action in the abolition of the patronage system in the civil service and sincerely trusts that it will continue in that course until the public services are entirely freed from all taint of patronage and graft and are placed on a thoroughly efficient and economical basis.

Because the child is the most important asset of the state, the general synod would call upon the clergy and churchmen generally to co-operate with every movement on behalf of child welfare and the improvement of the living and working conditions of the people.

Recognizing the fact that wholesome play fills a large and essential place in the proper development of the young, the general synod strongly recommends, wherever practicable, the establishment of supervised public playgrounds.

In view of the unsatisfactory relations that too often exist between capital and labor, the employer and employed, the general synod would urge its clergy and members and the church to give special study to industrial conditions with a view to their improvement and to industrial problems with a view to their eventual solution in the spirit and according to the teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ.
