Millinery Display.

All the newest and best styles in Summer Millinery, and more downright novelty than you ever knew before. The formal reception will be held Tuesday morning, and for all who come we'll have a great, generous showing. If you don't want to buy, no matter. You'll be welcome whether or no.

The charm of fashion is all over the store, but the emphasis is more and more on millinery of the newer sorts.

Clothing For Boys

We're aiming to properly dress boys as well as men—to make the question of "what to get" easier for the fathers and mothers. You know our way of doing things—stylish clothing, strongly made, backed up by our guarantee of satisfaction or money returned.

There's enough to that to entitle us to the biggest kind of business in boys' clothing. We're winning it as well because of the saving to you of fully 25 per cent. in buying here.

Our special province is what the boys and youths want. We leave the heavy beaten ruts of ordinary ready-made clothing and strike out to fit every boy, and suit the boy's mother.

White Underwear

The secret of summer comfort is in having plenty of nice clean underwear to put on as often as you want. We've anticipated all that with the finest stock of undergarments—elegantly made, nicely trimmed and vastly better value than we ever remember. This is the way prices run. You can pay more of course for extra fine qualities:

NO LONG BRANCH LICENSE.
West York Commissioners Yield to Pressure and Refuse the Application.
Toronto Junction, May 16.—The park at Long Branch will be dry this season as formerly. So the West York License Commissioners decided this evening at a special meeting called to consider the application of Edwin Smiley for a six months' wine and beer license. The matter had been up at two previous sittings and so much had been said on both sides that the board could not decide. The case presented by the protesting summer residents at the resort proved the stronger, however, and the Commissioners' decision was adverse to the application.

An Anti-Bromelidist in Dundas.
A meeting held to-day to select an independent candidate against Remedial Legislation was fairly well attended, all section of the county being represented.

THE SCHOOL QUESTION AND MANITOBA'S POSITION.

The voters of Canada, and especially those of Ontario, need have no trouble in coming to a clear view of the Manitoba school question now before them and on which they must vote at the forthcoming election.

The people of Manitoba saw fit to do away with separate schools, and in its place to establish national schools.

The Province of Quebec for some reason or other, and especially the hierarchy of the Province of Quebec, have decided that Manitoba shall re-establish the dual system of education in spite of the voice of the people of Manitoba, as expressed through their Legislature and as expressed through the vote of the people on three different occasions. There was read yesterday throughout the Province of Quebec a mandement (a French word, the English of which is command or compulsion) issued by the Bishops of that province that they ought to vote for no candidate who is not in favor of the imposition of the dual system of education on the people of Manitoba through an Act of the Federal Parliament. That is the second important point in the issue.

The third important fact is that the people of the Province of Ontario side with the Province of Manitoba in its determination to maintain national schools as against the dual system.

The fourth important point is that the Government of Canada under the leadership of Sir Charles Tupper has determined to recognize the demand of the Province of Quebec, and stands committed to-day to the re-establishment of the dual system of education. The Government of Canada under the leadership of Sir Charles Tupper has determined to recognize the demand of the Province of Quebec, and stands committed to-day to the re-establishment of the dual system of education. The Government of Canada under the leadership of Sir Charles Tupper has determined to recognize the demand of the Province of Quebec, and stands committed to-day to the re-establishment of the dual system of education.

What strikes the ordinary man is that if the people of Quebec and the Bishops have the right to say that Parliament must impose a dual system on Manitoba, then it surely follows that the people of Ontario through their representatives, and the people of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, and for that matter all the other provinces outside of Quebec, have also the right to say that Parliament must not interfere with Manitoba in the matter of education. And if both Liberals and Conservatives in the Province of Quebec see fit to pledge themselves to vote for remedial legislation, it is as fair that Liberals and Conservatives in the Northwest should pledge themselves to vote against the bill if they are so minded. The World has contended all along and still contends that the Province of Quebec has no right to impose only the dual system on the people of Manitoba, and that the people of the Northwest should be elected who are pledged against remedial legislation. What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander, and what electors are free to do in the Province of Quebec they ought likewise to be free to do in the Province of Ontario.

We, therefore, repeat our advice tendered some time ago, that candidates in this province ought to be pledged against the Remedial Bill, and as far as the Conservative party is concerned we lay especial stress upon this point, that the Conservative who is against remedial legislation in this province ought to be preferred in every case to one that is in favor of the imposition of a dual system on the Province of Manitoba against the wishes of that province. The most startling news in this direction is that received on Saturday, which is to the effect that in North Ontario, Major McGilivray, who was not pledged in the recent by-election, and who voted both ways when the question was up in Parliament, has seen fit to declare himself that henceforth, if elected, he will vote against the Remedial Bill. This, we say, is highly significant, and it is more than an intimation that the managers of the Conservative party in this province not to try and force remedial legislation upon the constituents.

In Wentworth a bad state of affairs exists through such an attempt. There is also trouble in West Toronto, where a similar thing is under way; and in West Peterboro a convention which was held some time ago has been declared off and a new one is to take place.

As for the Northwest, we wish to impress upon Manitoba that the matter of remedial legislation rests almost entirely in the hands of the people of that province themselves. They are free to elect Conservatives or Reformers as they see fit and nobody can say them nay, but if after their province has established a national school system through its own Legislature, and has endorsed that action in the subsequent elections, they now send men to Parliament who are indifferent on this question, or who are in favor of remedial legislation, then they may find very little assistance from the other provinces when the great battle comes on in the next Parliament. They surely must have clear views on the matter; and it is their duty above all the other provinces in the rest of the Dominion to send men to Ontario who are against remedial legislation. There is nothing quite so disgraceful in Canadian politics as the exhibition made by the Manitoba and the Northwest members in the recent session when remedial legislation was before Parliament. Mr. Daly was a member of the Government and made many speeches in favor of the Remedial Bill; but Mr. Daly is not in the new Government and has seen fit to retire from public life, and after a while does not see his way to seeking the confidence of the people of Brandon. This, we say, is significant. And then when we take Mr. Boyd and Mr. A. W. Ross and Mr. MacDonald and Mr. Macdonald and Mr. Daly and Mr. Davis, we must say that they have been more to a surprise to the people of the rest of Canada. By all means The World wishes to see the Province of Manitoba, and the Northwest Territories send men to Parliament who are supporters of the Conservative party, but The World also expects them, if there is any honesty or earnestness in the public opinion of these two provinces, to send Conservatives to Ottawa who are against remedial legislation. There is no room for two-faced conduct in this matter. It is both honest and feasible for those provinces to send Conservatives to Ottawa who are good Conservatives and who are for the National Policy, for the development of the Northwest, and who are against the dual system of education; but we cannot understand those provinces hereafter sending men of the stamp and of the class of those who represented or rather misrepresented them in the late Parliament. The Conservative party as a party was never committed to the Remedial Bill, and Conservatives are as free to-day as ever they were, if they are against remedial legislation, to send members who will vote against it, should the question arise in Parliament. The issue cannot be smoothed over, electors cannot be misled, but the question must be faced, and the next Parliament will judge very much of the earnestness of Manitoba by the class of men sent to the Federal Legislature. We especially commend this view of the case to the people of the Northwest. Many Conservatives in Ontario have made great sacrifices in the last Parliament, and are prepared to make similar sacrifices in the future on their behalf, but they do not quite see how that province and the Territories can be in earnest against the dual system when they send men to Parliament who vote for the imposition of that system upon their own province.
