SIR WILFRED STILL HOLDS THE TORONTO ALL CONSERVATIVE, BIG HAND OF POWER IN CANADA Big Majorities for Osler and Clarke, Kemp and Brock, While W. F. Maclean Has 700 and N. C. Wallace

The Liberals Gain Five Seat in Quebec, But Ontario Sends an Increase of Twenty Conservatives to Parliament.

Liberals Gain Three in New Brunswick, Three in Nova Scotia and One in Prince Edward Island, While They Lose Seven Seats in the West-The Majority Will Swing Between 29 and 49 for the Liberals, According to the Complexion of the Independents and the Elections Not Yet Held.

The battle on the plain of Federal politics has been fought. A survey of the bat-tlefield discovers many battle-scarred veterans hors de combat. The surprises in Ontario were shocking. Landmarks of Parliament Hill have been ruthlessly burled by popular disapproval. Verily, in many cases, the place that has known them so long will now know them no more forever.

The prospect is saddening.

Bill Stubbs No More.

No more will Bill Stubbs rise up in the House and ejaculate a few Socratic sentences. Bill has made his mark and gone under. Davie Rogers, whose speeches on binder twine and coal oil were epics in the binder twine and coal off were epics in the line of eloquence, has forsaken legislation and will devote the remainder of his days to the tilling of the soil. In a manner Davie was a modern Cincinnatus. The ent Clancy from Bothwell is also among the slain. A conscientious law-maker is lost to Canada for a time. No more will olly Dr. Landerkin crack jokes in the a personality that seemed indissoluble from the Capital.

Chief Montague has fallen beneath the House-Lake and Scott-and the House Chief Montague has rather benefit and the House—Lake and Scott—and the House bis lucid periods are cut off at a comma differences are even. or a time. "Wull'e" Gibson, the Liberal whip, will now have time to devote his
