York County Council.

The County Council completed their June labors at the Court House on Adelandestreet yesterday. They rushed thru the committee reports already reported, granted $50 towards rebuilding a bridge between the townships of Brock and Georgina, and appointed a commission to act with the County Judge and School inspector, consisting of Messrs. Hartman, Woodcock and Lundy, to arbitrate the dirficulty existing between two school sections in Vaughan that desire separation. The County Commissioners were instructed to examine that part of Yonge-street north of Bloor in the City of Toronto. The City of Toronto has taken over this road from the county, and, if necessary, a mandamus will be issued, compelling them to keep it in repair.

The Woodbine C.C. play Parkdale eleven to day at the Exhibition grounds. The Woodbine eleven are C. Hopkins (captain), H. S. Collins, W. Creighton, E. Smith, D. Leroy, P. Over, G. Over, S. Abbey, C. Jordan, G. Mitchell, A. Lithgow, W. Martin (sub.).

Messrs. Dolson and Pulfer were before G. W. Ormerod, J.P., for selling liquor during prohibited hours on June 9. They were each fined $40 and costs. Two other charges were not pressed.

The old stage coach, which has run on the Kingston-road from Dunbarton to the city, has at last disappeared. The mails are now delivered by a one-horse conveyance, arriving in the city about 2 in the afternoon.

East Ender Complains.

A complaint was made at the City Hall yesterday against the Barber Asphalt Company. They are paving Queen-street, from the Don bridge to the railway crossing, and the person making the complaint says they are employing Italians to do the work, and this is what he objected to. He thinks Canadians should be given the preference, and says plenty of them can be had. He hinted that perhaps the Italians were working for less than 18e per hour.

TO PREPARE FOR THE DUKE. Mass Meeting to Arrange Details of the Visit Slimly Attended, Last Night.

At half past eight yesterday evening His Worship the Mayor ascended the dais in the Council Chamber. In his hand he held a huge blue poster, from which he read the royal proclamation, calling a mass meeting of the citizens of Toronto to take steps in providing a suitable welcome for the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall when they arrive in this city next October. His Worship glanced round the spacious chamber with crestfallen face. The mass meeting of good citizens and true totalled considerably under fifty. Nevertheless, the small attendance was not without its advantages. The busi-ness was quickly and effectually trans-
