Always Loyal.

Dev. Mr. Speer spoke of some episodes in his life, the greatest of which was the time when he passed thru the mystic door. He had done so with fear and trembling, but he had always felt stronger afterward for having done so. He felt at home always with Orangemen. He spoke feelingly of the old pioneers of the country. It was no use, he said, of people to say that affairs would have been as good if there had been no Orangemen. This was wrong. One principle of the "Forward."

New York, July 12 .- The World says: Brnest A. Kennedy of Rossland, British Columbia, who lived in good style at the Holland House in this city until POPE LEO XIII.

at the Holland House in this city until a few weeks ago, was found yesterday in Chicago by detectives employed by Lawyer Henry C. Quinby of No. 74 Broadway, who is acting for the Holland House management.

Kennedy, it is alleged, drew four drafts, each for a considerable sam, upon the firm of Ernest Kennedy & Co., of Rossland, and these drafts were cashed at the Holland House. They were sent to Rossland for collection, and were protested and returned.

Kennedy had left the Holland House in the meantime. Detectives traced him to Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington and finally to Montreal, where it was learned that he had many wealthy relatives. It was learned that his uncle was a member of the exclusive St. was a member of the exclusive St-James Club in Montreal, and that Ken-nedy had been "put up" at the club during his visit. It was there that the detectives found the clue which led to Russian demands. As to the opening of these ports in question, the Chinese authorities rep ied that the circumstances were not favorable for compliance. The British Charge d'Affaires, Mr. Townley, was reported to have taken the same stand as Japan.

The United States demanded the opening of Harbin in addition to the other two places. In this connection negotiations are going on between Secretary Hay and the Chinese Ambassadore in Washington.

This reply to Japan's demand created a movement in government circles. There had been an extraordinary meeting on the 18th, at which Ad-
