LABELS PLAY SAINTS
HERE ON HOLIDAYFast Game Scheduled for
Afternoon of Dominion
Day.

Ernie Dinsmore's Blue Labels will take on the St. Thomas Saints at Tecumseh Park Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in order that the holiday may not pass without a ball game being staged in the city.

Dusty Bullock's crew have been doing good work of late and are now almost in a class with the Labels. The Saints think that they have arrived, and will do their best to take a fall out of the local pros. It should be a nice contest to start.

Owing to the fact that the team has been losing money up to date on the games that have been played, has been found necessary to boost the price of admission from 15 to 25 cents. The fans should not mind this, as the boys have been dishing up regular Canadian League stuff right along and deserve all the support in the world. It costs cold hard cash to bring teams here, and by the time the club pays the year tax and rent for the park there is nothing left in the till.

A number of the old-time fans who have yet to see the youngsters in action will have a good opportunity Monday afternoon.
