Call From England for More Doctors From This City

ENLISTMENTS FOR DAY

Total of Hundred and Twenty-One More Accepted for Overseas Service.

Toronto Military District has been asked to supply more doctors for service with the Royal Army Medical Corps. The request came thru the Director-General of Medical Services at Ottawa. All applicants must be fully qualified medical practitioners of Ontario not over 40, physically fit, and must apply thru Lieut.-Col. W. F. Marlow, A.D.M.S., Toronto. If their qualifications are suitable they will be recommended to Ottawa for appointment. Those selected must join the C.A.M.C. before being temporarily transferred to the R.A.M.C. The government will allow $150 for uniform and $35 for kit. The doctors will have rank of lieutenant in the R.A.M.C. and receive $6 a day. At the end of the war each will receive a gratuity of $300.

A recruit named John Bull joined the Pals Battalion. The "Pals" received 70 more men yesterday. It makes the strength of the 124th Battalion now about 820. At last night's parade of the Q.O.R., Lieut.-Col. R. C. Le Vesconts addressed the 635 men in the armories and announced that the overseas battalion would be known as the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada 166th Overseas Battalion. When this is filled up he said, the Q.O.R. would be certainly allowed to furnish another overseas battalion, and probably still another after that, if the regiment wanted to do it. if the regiment wanted to do it. Sergt. C. W. Field, formerly of the armories depot staff, has been appointed regimental quartermaster ser-geant of the 127th York County Bat-talion.
