

WATCHING SALE OF MEDICATED WINES

License Board Will See That Liquids Are Not Sold as Beverage.

DRUGGIST CAN JUDGE

Able to Note Character of Customers and Frequency of Purchases.

To occasional enquiries the license board replies that decision as to the legality of medicated wines does not lie in its province. That depends upon the possibility of using the wine as a beverage, a matter for the courts to decide.

Vice-Chairman Dingman pointed out yesterday that druggists are in a peculiarly favorable position to judge on this matter, as they are able to note the character of purchasers and the frequency of their purchases and to conclude therefrom whether the wine is being used for medicinal or beverage purposes. "The board is glad to observe that druggists are concerning themselves with this question and the fact is creditable to the profession," said he.

The board has received a letter from a scientific man stating that in an examination made by him in England most of the brands there and most of those sold in Canada were found to differ very little from port wine and to have very little medicinal value. "The board," said Mr. Dingman, "will continue a watchful policy on this subject, and it is possible that more prosecutions will follow on the basis that the articles which form the subjects of these prosecutions are rather produced for the beverage than for the medicinal effect."

HELP THE MISSIONARY PRIEST IN NORTHWEST

Meeting of Catholic Church Extension Auxiliary Consider Reports.

Representatives of every parish in the city were present at the open meeting of Catholic Church Extension Auxiliary held in St. Michael's Hall, when His Grace Archbishop McNeil was present, and Miss Hoskin, president of the women's auxiliary, was in the chair.

Miss Hoskin told of the objects for which they worked, the principal being to assist the missionary priest in the north west and in isolated districts. To this end councils had been formed in five of the parishes of Toronto and it was the hope to extend the plan to other parishes.

Since the inauguration of the work seven years ago, over $12,000 had been collected and expended by the auxiliary and in addition to the altar supplies, twelve chapels had been built at a cost of five hundred each, seven of these by the auxiliary and five by friends who co-operated.

The archbishop told of conditions in the west known to him by personal experience, and Rev. Fathers Minahan, Hayes, C.S.B. and Carey, C.S.P., made short addresses. Rev. Robert McBrady, C.S.P., was also present. Musical numbers were contributed by Miss Angela Tone Breen and by Miss Maud Landy.

A DIFFERENCE WORTH NOTING.

No other tire has the anti-skid, quick-stop feature which Dunlop Traction Tread gives for so long a time. Notice how quickly the non-skid features of other tires disappear. With "Traction" the corrugations remain until the tire is practically worn out. Have you considered "Traction" from this standpoint?

BEGINNING MONDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 16th, The Toronto Daily World will present the most remarkable moving picture which has ever been produced, being an actual photographic official record of the British victory at the Somme on July 1st, 1916, with a comprehensive view of the awful bombardment on June 29th and 30th which preceded the infantry advance. The World in showing these sensational pictures does so in the confident belief that they graphically illustrate the biggest "news story" of the day and record in imperishable form for all loyal British folk to see, the glory of our soldiers and the sacrifices they are making for us and for the cause of humanity and civilization.

THE BATTLE OF THE SOMME pictures portray the most important British engagement on land in the present war, and the greatest in point of men, material and preparations in all her 2,000 years of struggle for liberty and justice. Since Julius Caesar landed on her shores, down through 2,000 years of history, this battle, with its huge guns, its expenditure of millions of shells and of thousands of lives, is the greatest of Britain's single efforts on land, and its significance for the Empire and for the world is not second to Waterloo. It broke the deadlock on the western front and marks the turning of the tide.

THE PICTURES OF "THE BATTLE OF THE SOMME," released by the war office for public exhibition in honor of Britain's heroes at the front, created a perfect sensation in England and throughout Great Britain. A million people saw them in London alone during the first few days. Fifteen hundred copies of the film have been printed, the greatest order since the invention of the motion picture. The first copy to arrive in Toronto will be given its initial presentation Monday afternoon at 12.15 o'clock, under the auspices of The Toronto Daily World.

THE FILM OF "THE BATTLE OF THE SOMME" consists of 5,500 feet of action. All superfluous matter was carefully cut by the film editors of the British Topical Committee, acting under authority of the war office. Sir Douglas Haig states that the picture is correct and authentic as it now stands, and the British Government have decreed that once released for exhibition it must not be tampered with, even though it show the horrors of war as well as the heroism. The soldiers have suffered and sacrificed—it is for us to bear witness to their honor and glory. "If this film does not end war, God help civilization," declares Mr. Lloyd George.

A CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCE at the Regent Theatre will start at noon Monday and continue every afternoon and evening all week. The film requires an hour and a quarter to show. By this means the greatest possible number of people will be able to see this wonderful picture, and, to encourage this, popular prices, ranging from 15c to 35c, will be charged for admission. Suitable music will accompany the pictures, and the people of Toronto, who take this opportunity, will have an experience they will never forget, being second only to that of those who took part in the battle.
