CANADIAN RAILWAYS BOWLING.

The first series of the Canadian National Railways Association twelve-team bowling league will be completed tonight at Saunders' Alleys. There is a possibility of five teams tying for first place, so an interesting evening is expected. On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings the association is running a two-series bowling event for prizes of turkeys and cigars. Fifty double and fifty-five single entries are taking part, and all expect to get a free Christmas dinner and enough cigars to treat their friends during the coming year. The entrants who have played in league games will be bowling with handicaps, while the other series will be a non-handicap affair.

Trailian cricket teams was continued here today in beautiful weatner. The wicket remained in excellent condition. The Australian team completed its first infings; making 267. The English team suffered something of a collapse in its infings, the team being retired for 190. Ryder was cleverly run out without a run being added to the Australian score of 250 on one resumption this morning. Mailey came in, and the newcomer showed a disposition to hit. When seventeen runs had been added Oldfield was caught by Hobbs at coverpoint. The innings thus closed for 267. It had lasted five and a quarter hours. Hearne was the more successful Englishman with the ball.

The English team made a bad start. Hobbs and Russell went in and Russell was clean bowled by Kelaway before a run had been scored. Hearne then joined Hobbs and the two played safe but unsensational cricket till lunch, when the score was 45 for one. At the tea interval the score stood at 158 for five When the score was fifty Hearne had been easily caught at first slip. Hendren and Hobbs added twenty before Hobbs was bowled by Gregory with an exceptionally fast ball. Woolley joined Hendren, and they made a considerable stand.

Egyptian God Invented Beer

CEER is a beverage of the most remote D antiquity. The Egyptian God Osiris is said to have taught mankind to make a drink from barley.

But if Csiris of Mythological times could taste O'Keefe's beers of the 20th century, the old pagan would acknowledge that someone has beaten him at his own game.

O'Keefe's brews may not be known as "Nectar for the gods" but they are just right for thirsty humans, and our Imperial Ale, Lager and Stout take the palm for snappy, invigorating beverages which are relished at all seasons.

You can't buy Nectar, but you can get O'Keefe's at any cafe, hotel or restaurant.

Sold at all hotels, restaurants and cafes, and in case lots by your grocer.
