Mrs. McGlyern entertained at dinner and bridge on Tuesday. The guests included; Mr. and Mrs. James Smellie, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Fleming, Miss Ritchie, Miss Lacy Kingsford, Miss Mabel Ferguson, Mr. Bolton, Mr. Ritchie and Mr. Haultaine.

John Thompson gave a very jolly skat-ing party and dinner at the Golf Club. Mr. and Mrs. D'Arcy Scott chaperoned, and the guests included: Miss Ethel Jones, Miss Lucy Kingsford, Miss Dillou, Miss Helen Scarth, Mr. Appleton, Mr. Low, Mr. Fellowes and Mr. Pugsley.

Yesterday Mrs. E. J. Chamberlain gave a charming luncheon. Those present were: Mrs. Bergeron, Mrs. Travers Lewis, Mrs. Fleck, Mrs. Ned Grant, Mrs. C. J. Smit. Mrs. Remon, Mrs. George Perley, Mrs. F. C. T. O'Hara.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanbury-Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Collingwood Schrieber, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh, Mr. and Mrs. John Gilmour, Mr. and Mrs. James Smellie, Mrs. Cromble, Maj-Paske, C. J. Jones and W. A. Allan had the pleasure of dining on Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley Powell.

Mrs. Fitzhugh entertained at luncheon on Thursday. The guests included: Mrs. E. B. Osler, Mrs. Worthington, Mrs. John Gilmour, Mrs. L. K. Jones, Mrs. Macdonald, Miss Anderson of Montreal, Lady Caron, Madame Bergeron, Mrs. W. G. Perley, Mrs. Sedgewick and Miss Thistle.

Mrs. W. J. Anderson gave a large tea terday, also Mrs. Glyn Osler, and to-day Lady Laurier was the hostess at 5 o'clock.

The second of the much-talked-of "social reform" luncheons took place on Thursday, given by Miss White and Miss Laura Smith to married ladies. The one last week which was at Miss Smith's, was for girls. This is Miss Smith's idea, and the object is to see how small an amount the huncheon can be given for. The menu is of six courses, and the limit of the whole is one dollar and a half, with 50 cents for drinks. Just think of the eleverness and ingenuity required to carry this scheme successfully thru! The two hostesses do the cooking themselves, and really a more dainty and charming lunch could not be imagined. On the menucard is printed the price of each course, and much fun is derived by discussing each dish, and at the top an amusing motto, such as, "God made meat, and the devil made cooks," "Fools make feasts and wise meneral them," "The success of a feast is the cheerfulness of the guests." and "They are as sick who surfeit with too much as they who starve on nothing." One or two of the girls who were at the first luncheon are lot try their hand at this novel entertainment, possibly next week. The guests of the Thursday luncheon were: Mrs. Colling wood Schrieber, Mrs. Robert Gill. Mrs. C. J. Smith, Mrs. O'Halloran, Mrs. Avery and Mrs. Remon,

Sunday Morning

The United Arts & Crafts

A new exhibit has been opened in the Arts and Crafts Studio, with the especial purpose of showing some new and striking artistic effects in Dining Room Furnishing. A visit is worth while to anyone who has an appreciation of artistic things.

It may not be known, but ought to be, that the United Arts and Crafts have the exclusive patterns in some of the richest, most beautiful and most unique draperies, hangings and wall coverings that have ever been seen in this country. It is a pleasure to show visitors the scope of work done by Arts and Crafts.

Mrs. Oag received informally on Saturday afternoon at her new house, Galadina, 142 West Bloor-street, in honor her guest, Miss L. Foster of Orilla. Mrs. Oag welcomed her guests wearing a pretty gown of voile over black. The rooms were beautified by flowers and ferns. The dining-room, where Mrs. Bonskill, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Veale presided, looked remarkably well. The crimson walls, polished floor, quaint windows of cathedral glass, tables decorated with crimson carnations, ferns and shaded lights combined to produce a good effect. The house, which was decorated by the United Arts and Crafts, was thrown open for the inspection of the guests.

On the evening of Monday, Feb. 20,

Dermid received a large number of their friends on Wednesday evening, at the house of the former, 42 Sprucestreet. Much interest was taken in the progressive euchre, first prizes being won by Miss Breading and Mr. Cumming, with Mrs. A. Witheridge and Mr. Jack Henderson carrying off the booby prizes with honors. Dancing and music ensued, the performers being Miss Cook, Mr. Cumming and Mr. Henderson.

The exhibition by the members of the Woman's Art Association, which was opened by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Clark, has proved a great success, and the visitors are exceeding in number those who attended the exhibition of Dutch and Scotch paintings held not long ago. The loan exhibit of lace seems to have appealed to every woman in Toronto. It is a fabric that from the earlier times has been dear to female hearts, and, indeed, to the heart of man also, as we read that from the reign of Elizabeth immense sums were paid by the gallants of the day for ruffles, steinkirbees and jabots. They even wore it over the tops of their long soft leather boots. However, in these days all such prettinesses are denied to the sterner sex, but women still spend large sums upon this most becoming of all draperies. Our own royal family own many priceless specimens. The Dowager Queen of Italy sent a magnificent collection to the World's Fair and many of the rich American women have good laces, tho as a rule their taste runs more to jewels. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Dignam, the president of the Woman's the as a rule their taste runs more to jewels. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Dignam, the president of the Woman's Art Association, read a short paper on the history of lace to an interested audience but of course in such limited time could only touch, as it were, upon the outer edge of the subject.
