Germany's Census Questions. Here are some of the questions which the census takers in Germany are asking this year: "Are you lawfully married or not? When were you married? Have you been divorced? What age was your wife at the time of the marriage? Are you or your wife subject to nervous attacks? If you have children under 12 months, state how they are nourished? Are you blind, or simply in one eye? Do you use loggnettes, spectacles or pince-nez? What size boots and shoes does your wife take? Do you drink alcohol?"
