this year at a 2.00 clip. He is entered through the Grand Circuit and stands to win something like $50,000 in the coming campaign. "Ed" Geers is training him. Mr. Wildman bought him at auction for $750 about two years ago. He was bred in Kentucky and is by Doctor Hooker, 2.23 3-4, dam by a horse called Tom Covington.

Red Cloud the stallion that won the Waldorf-Astoria cup for gig horses at Madison Square Garden in 1899, is now in the stud at Mount Sterling, Ky not far from where he was foaled seventeen years ago. It is a singular fact that this horse perhaps the most perfect heavy harness stallion living, is not eligible to registration in any stud book for harness horses but is duly recorded in the Amercian Saddle Horse Register, as arc the sire and dam. His breeding brings out the close relationship between the saddle bred horse of Kentucky and the standard trotter. His sire, Wilson's King, was a son horse of Kentucky and the standard trot-ter. His sire, Wilson's King, was a son ter. His sire, Wilson's King, was a son of the well known trotting sire Harrison Chief, son of Clark Chief, by Mambrino Chief. The Sanday game was played at Atwater Park, and the score was 6 to 0. The Sunday game was played at the Shamrock grounds. Great interest has been arounded in the constance of the coming and the score was 5 to 2.

Though the patronage was not extensive, still the ball played was excellent, and the fans present got their money's worth and something over. Both contests were marked by sharp fielding and clever pitch ing. On Saturday opposing twirlers were Hodd and O'Brien, the latter being the Reserve's artist. He had something on Hodd, but not much, as the Quebec pitcher held the locals down to four hits. O'Brien had the better control, giving but two passes, whereas Hodd gave five, and also hit two men. This wildness proved expensive, three runs resulting from it. Errors by Shortstop Stevens gave the Reserves got one in the first, when Says, seventeen years and under, 100 yds., Boys, seventeen yea
