Intermediate Basketball Semi-Finals Open Here

Chicago White Sox is destined shortly to take his place as the greatest out-fielder in the American League.

That is the opinion held by his manager, Eddie Coollins. No one is much better qualified to pass on the merits of "Bananas," as Gollins years ago nicknamed Mostil

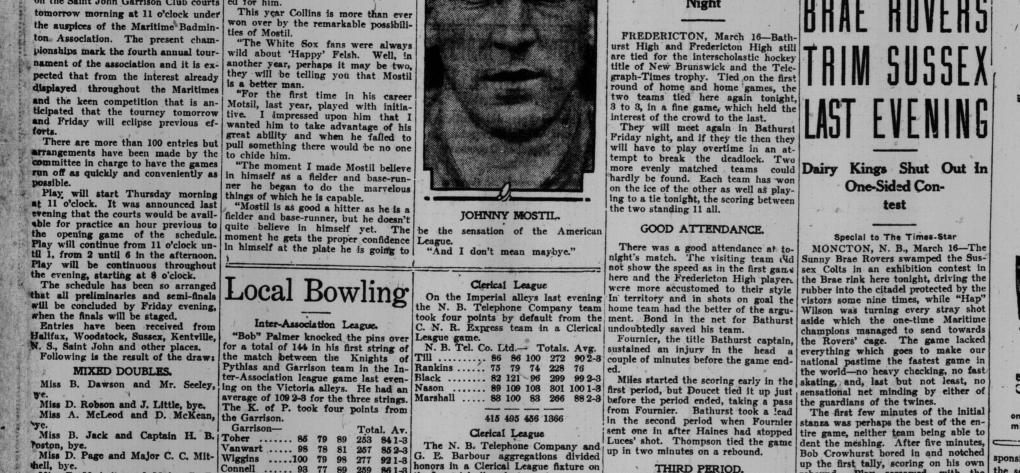

The stage is all set for the Maritime badminton tourney, which opens advance notices his manager had painton the Saint John Garrison Club courts ed for him tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock under the auspices of the Maritime Badminton Association The Association The This year Collins is more than ever won over by the remarkable possibilities of Mostil.

stake for either team. Canadiens at-tempted to make the contest an entertaining one for the 3,500 spectat-ors, but St. Pats were not so keen to open up. It was the first victory in twelve starts for the local team, but it was not enough to land them out of the cellar position.

Morenz got back into the game and scored two goals. Joliet was out of the game with a sore knee, and Captain Billy Coutu was also out with a Canadiens leave tonight for Wind sor, where they play St. Pats tomorrow and Saturday. Next Wednesday they play Boston at Providence, closing the post-season barn-storming trip with a game against New York at Providence one week from Saturday. MAROONS LOSE. BOSTON, Mass., March 17.-Bos boston, Mass., March 17.—Boston won a soft game from Montreal last night, one to nothing. The Montreal players held themselves in reserve for the play-off games and failed to exert themselves. Jimmy Herberts scored the only goal of the evening in the third period.

Tailor Sale $22 to $32

Once a year it happens like this—the Triple C Tailors feel it is up to them to come across with a stunt to start people talking.

They offer the lowest prices for truly tailored clothes you can obtain. Besides it's their annual Tweeds cost less in both wool and weaving than Serges and Worsteds. Select from a lavish array of new effects at $22. Another revolutionary lot of novelty at $25. $25 tailors at the Sale a fully guaranteed pure wool 18 ounce Serge. Impossible to equal it elsewhere under $45 at the very least. At $27.50 and up to $32 a complete pick of the cream cloths of the new season. Highest qualities on the market, no reason why they shouldn't be.

Bring $5—look the Sale offerings over—and leave your order at once to get an early delivery.
