ALONG THE RIVER

Many Boating Parties Went up
Yesterday; Haying This Week:
Brown's Flats Picnic

The glorious moonlight made Saturday night along the river a night to be remembered. The whole valley was bathed in a soft radiance, and the moon's reflection on the smooth waters was a long wide path of shining silver. Boating parties were out late, and every city man and woman were reluctant to go indoors.

There was the usual large crowd of residents, motorists and yachtsmen at the dance in the pavilion at Public Landing. The young people are to have a masquerade there on Wednesday evening.

Carters Point was filled with pride on Saturday evening. Its tug-of-war team carried off the honors at the Grange-men's picnic at Brown's Flats, despite heavy reinforcements received by the river team. There was also a horse race, won by Thane Belyea's rooster; and some exciting foot races. The picnic was a great success.

The river was dotted with motor boats yesterday. A party from the neighborhood of Westfield went up the Reach and down again in a huge show with masts, and thoroughly enjoyed the sail.

Coming down river last evening in A. Roberts' motor boat, the Verta, those on board saw many boats at Belyea's Point, Crystal Beach and all along to Sand Point. Quite a number of canoes were moving alongshore, and bright costumes were everywhere. Just as the Verta entered Grand Bay those on board witnessed one of the most beautiful effects of sun and cloud they had ever seen. A black cloud lay over toward the Nepes hills, and crossed the path of the sun. The latter, hidden for a moment, soon poured its brilliant rays through a rift with the result that to the onlookers in Grand Bay all Westfield and the river toward Nepes were bathed in white flames, as if there were a great smokescreen of fire. This lasted for ten minutes. Then the cloud passed, and the whole scene was again clear in the sunlight.

The farmers along the Reach will probably begin haying the latter part of this week. The other crops are doing well. In another week the wild raspberries will begin to ripen. A few ripe ones are here and there a ripe blueberry could be picked yesterday.

A large dancing pavilion is being erected at Belyea's Point. The people along the Reach are hoping soon to see the trains running on the Valley Railway. The work of making the new highway across the Nepes is in progress.

The steamer Oconee had her usual large list of passengers from up-river points this morning.

ST. JOHN BOYS AWAY TO NORTHWEST MOUNTED

J. H. and Wm. R. McMahon,
War Veterans, Join Famous Police

Two brothers, John Howard McMahon, away to Regina to join the ranks of the R. N. W. M. P., both are veterans of the great war, John a sergeant in the 20th and later a cadet in the R. A. F., and William with the engineers. Another recruit, Albert Edward Perry, a Newfoundland, also went west on Saturday night. Ninety recruits have been received for the police in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia during the last month. Inspector La Nause left for Fredericton last evening. The McMahon boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McMahon, Hospital street.

COAL HIGHER IN BANGOR THAN WAR TIME PRICE

(Bangor Commercial)
The recent advance in the price of coal of $1 a ton was unavoidable, according to a well known Bangor dealer in that commodity, and was due to transportation difficulties encountered during the spring and summer.

Ordinarily the sheds of Bangor dealers ought to be filled with coal at this season of the year whereas they are practically empty they say. The dealers are unable to secure sufficient supplies during April, May and June, and the prospects for the balance of the season are not at all bright, they declare.

Coal companies owning their own barges and delivering coal at Atlantic ports have no control over the same owing to government regulations, and eastern city dealers who have been dependent upon these barges are very much worried lest they be obliged to have their supplies come by rail for the balance of the season which will mean an increase of at least $2 a ton over present prices.

Bangor consumers may take what consolation they may from the knowledge that they are not alone in their trouble for similar conditions exist in Boston, Portland and other New England cities, and the outlook for relief in the near future is not particularly bright. The present price of anthracite coal in Bangor is $12.25 a ton, less a discount of two per cent., for ten days' settlement. The July price in 1918 was $12.25 less than two per cent.

THIS ROAD CULVERT SHOULD BE REPAIRED.

One of the favorite motoring roads is that through Westfield and along the river road to Brown's Flats. Just at Public Landing is a small culvert covered with half a dozen poles. Pipe for a proper culvert was taken there last year, but last week it was taken away again. Every car that crosses the poles gets a very unpleasant bump and those who know the route always slow down to save themselves from hitting the roof of the car. This culvert should be repaired at once, even if nothing more is done than cover it with planks and gravel. The rest of the road is good.

WAS IN Y. M. C. A. WAR WORK.

Lieut. Howard H. Titus arrived home last evening and is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Titus, 151 King street east. Lieutenant Titus was overseas two years, and was engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in England and France. He remained with the Fourth Division until it was demobilized, but secured leave to make a very interesting visit to southern France and Italy. Lieutenant Titus was a student at Acadia College before going overseas, and expects to renew his studies in the fall.

Stockings That Cost Less Because They Wear Longer

Your boy is hard on stockings. Any normal, healthy boy is. You can't keep him from climbing trees and fences. But you can get him stockings that will stand this usage—that will give him extra wear and look well too. Just ask your dealer for Buster Brown Stockings.

Buster Brown Stockings wear longer because we knit them from extra-long yarn with double-ply legs and three-ply heels and toes. We make sure of Buster Brown quality by spinning our own yarn. Our employees have had years of training, for special skill is necessary to knit Buster Brown Stockings.

You'll find them well-fitting and smoothly finished, for we knit good looks as well as durability into Buster Brown hosiery. They look well at all times. Sold everywhere. Ask your dealer for Buster Brown durable hosiery.

PAGE THINKS HIGHLY OF CANADIAN BOYS

Halifax, N. S., July 14.—Among the passengers on the steamer Carmanis bound for New York, is Thomas Nelson Page, American ambassador to Rome. He is accompanied by Mrs. Page, their daughter and son-in-law and grandson.

The ambassador highly praised the work done by the Canadians in Europe. They had made a great record and "Canada need well be proud of them," he said. He was glad to have the opportunity of coming across with some of the Canadian boys, and took a deep interest in the dismemberment of the troops.

When the troops were passing down to the gangway the ambassador took up a position at the head of one of the stairways and bade many of the boys good-bye.

He was particularly interested in the artillery men who were returning from Russia. "They do not know how glad I am to see them get home," he said. "It is the greatest event in their lives."

One afternoon on the way across Mr. Page was on deck and some of the Canadians asked him to speak to them, which he did. "I felt it was an honor to address them," he said to a reporter. "How are conditions in Italy?" he was asked.

"Everything is quiet in the country now," was the reply. "The Italians have suffered much. Their casualties amounted to 2,000,000; food is very scarce, and the people are suffering many privations. War bread is still in use, and there is no sugar."

"Is the attitude of the people friendly to America?" the reporter asked.

"Yes," answered the ambassador. "Americans were always treated with courtesy and there was not a report that one of them had been insulted."

The ambassador has been in Rome for six years, and is returning to America for business and personal reasons. Asked if he would return to Rome, Mr. Page said that could not be discussed. It has been rumored for some time that he will resign as ambassador to Rome.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU

F. A. Campbell, president of the Trades and Labor Council, John Corbett and C. Gus Langbein, representing labor organizations, and J. Fraser Gregory, Miles E. Agar and J. A. Grant, representing employers, have been appointed members of the advisory committee in connection with the St. John Employment Bureau in accordance with an order-in-council of the government of Canada.

The "Peking Gazette," founded in A. D. 908, was for a long time the only journal allowed to be published in China but within the last sixty years others have been established.

Sidelights On Sport

The fans who witnessed the game of ball between St. John and Calais on Saturday afternoon all agree that it was one of the best played here for some time. The fielding of both teams was at times sensational and was warmly applauded. Games like that will tend to revive baseball in this city and will encourage the promoters to bring other outside teams here.

Fans are awaiting with interest the game this evening between Fairville and Carleton, as it will give them a chance to see Jack White's line-up in action. He has had nearly a week to reorganize his club and it will be a big boost to the league if he can win a few games. Here's wishing him and his club luck.

The Y. M. C. I. boys made a good showing in Moncton despite the fact that they were short some players. When the fans were informed Saturday afternoon that only one game was to be played with Calais, there were many dissenting voices. They felt that the club should have been held over for a double-header. The fault lies with the fans—not all it is true—but with many. It costs money to bring a team here owing to the high rates on the railroads, board expenses, etc., and on Saturday the promoters had to work hard all afternoon to get enough money to foot the bills for one game. Fans would be getting off lucky if they could see a game of such calibre for a quarter of a dollar, but there were hundreds on Saturday who passed a copper into the hat. If they could not afford to pay more they are as welcome as the flowers in May, but it is not always those who cannot afford a dime or quarter who fall down. The promoters have to take a chance on the weather, go to the trouble of making all arrangements, etc., and then may have to dig down into their own pockets to pay the bills. If sport is to be encouraged those who enjoy it should do their part in helping the cause.

In the National League Cincinnati has again ousted the Giants from the lead and is out ahead by a few points. In the American League Chicago gained a half game on the Yankees by splitting with the Red Sox, while New York was losing two games to the Detroit Tigers. Toronto is playing good ball and winning consistently again, but such is also true of the Baltimore team and as a result there is no change in the race, the latter team enjoying a nine game lead.

"Sorry I gave you the wrong number," said the polite telephone operator. "Don't mention it," answered the man who had made up his mind not to lose his temper. "I'm sure the number you gave me was much better than the one I asked for. Only it just happened I wasn't able to use it."
