HOME-AGAIN BILL
AT THE IMPERIAL

Vacation Folks Will Be Delighted
With the Week-End Welcoming
Programme

Big, handsome Harry Morey in a Vitaphone production of the adventurous type, "Fighting Destiny," will be the prime feature of the Imperial's bill to-night and tomorrow. This is a brand new picture and one of the Vitaphone's new star series. Never was Harry Morey known to better advantage.

Then there will be the second of the Leary Semon super-comedies, "The Back," a continuous series of merriment throughout its two hours. This picture played in Broadway theatres on the same plane as Chaplin productions.

Finally there will be the fourteenth chapter of the serial story, "The Carter Case," with a synopsis that will give vacationists a chance to understand the drift of the action and thus fully enjoy the two concluding episodes—this week's and next's.

HERE'S A NICE LIST
OF NEW ATTRACTIONS
AT THE OPERA HOUSE

There will be another smashing good vaudeville programme at the Opera House opening tonight, the five features including Toots and Pal, a comedian and a comedy acrobatic dancing dog; Murray and Irwin, in comedy songs, chat and eccentric dancing; Cowan and Lewis, in a high class vocal offering; Edwards and Walters, comedy skit, "From the Movies to Vaudeville"; Murray, Ward Tivo, in comedy acrobatics, falls and bumps; and the serial, "The Tiger's Trail," with Ruth and Tom, tomorrow afternoon at 2 and 8.30. Popular prices.

OUR STAMP OF APPROVAL ON THIS ONE

On Labor Day we will present a special public production "The Cry of the Weak," featuring Fanny Ward.

Never before has Fanny Ward been forced to use such emotions as this picture calls for.

The story of "The Cry of the Weak" is based on the fact that a criminal, given a chance, either turns out good or continues to be a crook.

Don't fail to see this picture, as we are sure it is our best in months.

Two shows Monday afternoon at 2 and 8.30 (daylight time), Star Theatre.

RESIGN FROM PILOTAGE BOARD

H. C. Schofield and J. Willard Smith Make Protest in Distinct Form

H. C. Schofield and J. Willard Smith, appointees of the board of trade to the St. John Harbor Pilotage Commission, tendered their resignations at a council meeting of the board of trade this morning. The resignations are said to have been in protest because of the condition of affairs in connection with the pilotage regulations in the city. Some time ago an order in council was passed giving over to the marine and fisheries department matters dealing with pilotage in the harbor of St. John, but up to the present nothing appears to have been done in the matter. Capt. W. R. Bennett, another of the commissioners, resigned only a few days ago.

Acceptance of the invitation of the board to the members of the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers who will be in session on September 11, to lunch with them on that date, was received.

COL. B. R. ARMSTRONG
IS COMING HOME TO RESUME LAW PRACTICE

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 29.—Colonel Armstrong, D. A. A. G., and Q. M. G., for M. D. No. 6, will soon retire from office and he will be succeeded by Major J. Slayter. Colonel Armstrong will resume his law practice at St. John, N. B.

At the beginning of the war Col. L. R. Armstrong, who was then in command of the 3rd Regt. C. G. A., volunteered for any service for which the government cared to use him. His injuries received in the South Africa war prevented his going across, as was his wish, in this war, so he was slated for home service and he has since then filled various posts allotted him in connection with garrison work very capably. In 1917 he was sent overseas on a business trip for the department of militia and while there managed to visit France. He made a tour of the front and made it a special point to visit all New Brunswick units, by whom he was warmly welcomed. For some time he has been at Halifax, where he has been D. A. and Q. M. G. for the Nova Scotia district.

LAY AT NIGHTS IN
FLETCHER'S FIELD
BUT HAD MONEY

Montreal, Aug. 29.—Levi Hirst, of no address, according to the story of the police, has some strange ways. For the last week there has been complaint at headquarters of a mysterious individual who stayed around Fletcher's Field all night and who threw himself prostrate on the grass whenever an auto or a pedestrian appeared. The police did not like that alleged conduct so they watched carefully for the man and this morning at four o'clock they took Hirst into custody.

As it was chilly on the field at night the prisoner had loaded himself with three pairs of pants for his outing. He wasn't a pauper either, for when they searched the man at the police station $200.42 was found in his pockets.

MONTREAL STREET

The increase has been imposed so that the tramways company can pay an increase in salaries demanded by its men and remain solvent.
