

OUR FOREFATHERS
purged themselves often and lived long. They used mild yet efficient purgatives like
"E. GA"
PURGATIVE WATER
which flushes out the intestines and ensures normal bowel action without causing colic, cramps or discomfort.
On Sale everywhere: 25 cents the bottle.
NATIONAL DRUG & CHEMICAL CO., ST. JOHN, N. B.

U. S. TROOPS GAIN GROUND IN FAMOUS ST. MIEHEL SALIENT

New York, Sept. 12.—The Associated Press tonight issues the following: The American First Army under command of General Pershing is in motion against the Germans on a twenty-mile front on the famous St. Mihiel salient in Lorraine, which had stood a sharp wedge in the French line southeast of Verdun since the commencement of the war.

In the preliminary thrust ground was gained on both sides of the triangle and at St. Mihiel and at last account the Americans with some French troops are brigaded, were fast sweeping across the salient in an effort to close the mouth of the big pocket before the German can get out.

Although the advance of the Americans was swift and sure and gains in excess of four miles on the southern side of the battle area were made, the cavalry far outstripped the tanks and footmen operating along the railroad near Vigneulles, almost in the centre of the salient and northeast of St. Mihiel and also northwest of Pont-A-Mousson, through the forest and along the railway line running northward to Metz, the great German fortress, the southern water fortifications of which are less than ten miles distant.

Thiaucourt, Boulliville, Pannes and several other towns in the south were captured in the initial dash. The fighting front at the commencement of the battle aggregated twenty miles—eight miles on the western side and twelve miles on the southern side. The fighting was preceded by an extremely heavy artillery bombardment, and the troops and tanks advanced under barrage which was carried out with mathematical precision.

From the maps it would seem almost impossible for the Germans to evacuate this salient, as they apparently are trying to do, although they are offering resistance with machine guns and artillery, suffering huge losses with men and material.

In the north Field Marshal Haig is still hard at the Germans in the region of Cambrai where he has advanced his front, penetrating into the old British front line, crossed the Canal du Nord north of Havrincourt, taking Havrincourt and another section of the Hindenburg line and sent a thousand Germans into the British prisoner cages in the rear. The Germans fought hard at Havrincourt to stay the British, but their counter-attacks were beaten off. Further advances for the British are reported in the region south of La Bassée Canal and northwest of Arras.

JOHN MITCHELL'S BURNING WORDS

Quoted in the Recruiting Campaign in Ireland—A Scathing Indictment

The following is one of the appeals recently issued in Dublin to encourage

Kink in the Back

You bend over and can scarcely get straightened up again. This comes on you so suddenly you can't understand it.

This is lumbago. Like backache and rheumatism, it is the result of poisons in the blood. The kidneys are deranged, but the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills will soon set them right. The pains and aches will disappear with the poisons when the kidneys do their work properly.

HOW A YOUNG GIRL SUFFERED

And Was Restored to Health By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Told By Her Mother.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 18 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school almost all the time. She suffered agonies from backache and rheumatism and was without appetite. For three months she was under the doctor's care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching so I didn't know what to do. I read the papers about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more. She has gained weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. M. FRODRE, 515 Marcy Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

PUT CANADIANS IN TIGHT CORNER AND THEY STICK

Bishop Richardson Quotes Words of British Officer

BIG MEETING IN TORONTO

His Lordship Speaks of the Church and the War—Says Spirit of Materialism Has Grippd Religious Life

Toronto, Sept. 12.—Between 3,000 and 4,000 persons attended a meeting last night in connection with the Anglican synod under the auspices of the laymen's missionary movement, to hear Right Rev. J. N. McCormick, D. D., Bishop of Western Michigan, and Right Rev. Bishop Richardson of Fredericton. They were welcomed briefly by Mr. Justice Hodgkins of Toronto and Archbishop Worrell of Nova Scotia.

Bishop Richardson declared that the Canadian troops had made the name of Canada synonymous with strength, steadfastness and courage. A high British officer had said to him, "Put those Canadians in a tight corner, and they stick." "That is the characteristic of the Allies," added the bishop, "they stick."

There was nothing in the old country today the Canadian soldier could not have for the asking. Speaking of the moral conduct of the troops, he declared that while in England and France, he had seen only one case of a man showing signs of intoxication, and General Currie had told him that in three years not a single Canadian soldier had been charged with a crime against a woman.

The shop declared his conviction that Germany should pay the price of her misdeeds. "I count that a Christian thing to say," he exclaimed. "We owe it even to the Germans to say that." Germany shall pay the penalty for her sins, and make a tardy penitence. No peace possible that does not carry with it reparation.

Reverting to the subject, "The Church and the War," he said, "I find in the spirit of the men themselves that religion is not dead. The failure of the church is not in the faith of the men, but in the organization, but in the members. Power was with the church, but it was always been, but the power had been taken away. The spirit of materialism had gripped religious life, the members of the church seemed to assert in their lives the supremacy of the world in which they lived. The members of the church were materialistic, to teach faith and to live more adventurously." Captain Wood, of the 10th Battalion, was described as a "saint who ranks with St. Francis of Assisi, or saint John of the Desert. He is everywhere where the shells are thick. The other day he captured a machine gun and a trench, in England, suffering from gas paralysis caused by concussion."

Two FINE PICTURES. Two very fine pictures have recently come to the New Brunswick Tourist Association and have been much admired. One is a picture of the province, beautifully colored and handsomely mounted and showing the value of the St. John river and the celebrated salmon rivers of the province. The other is a splendid picture of Force Rock, Gaspe Peninsula, in a soft brown tint and artistically framed. The pictures were presented to the Tourist Association by the C. G. R. and are from the studios of Notman & Son and executed with that firm's good style and finish.

A Prominent Stan Feiner Faces Facts. Judge Cohalan, whose activities in favor of Sinn Fein involved him in a good deal of trouble early in the war, has honestly faced the fact that Prussia was not beaten before liberty is possible anywhere. He now says: "I am for America first, last and all the time. When the United States entered the war I turned against Germany."

Can any Irishman, whatever his political opinions, refuse to "turn against Germany," and by remaining "neutral" decline to assist the cause to which all his brethren in America are committed? The peoples of the world are today in arms against what John Mitchell called the "don spring of Prussia," and against the pretensions of the Prussian to deny all human rights whatsoever. Are Irishmen, whatever their motive, willing to stand aside from such a contest?

At the outbreak of the war every political leader declared war against Prussia in the name of Ireland. No Irish leader has gone back on that. All Irishmen willing to assist in the work of recruiting are requested to communicate with the Irish recruiting council, and supply information and suggestions as to local organizations, and the most effective method of proceeding in different districts. The office is opened at 22 St. Stephen's Green, Dublin. Lieutenant Aedan Cox has been appointed secretary to the council, and all communications should be addressed to him at above.

Rheumatism A Home Cure Given By One Who Had It

In the spring of 1898 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but found no relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case. I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be the long-sought-for means of curing your rheumatism, you may send your price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write to-day.

Mark H. Jackson, No. 78E Gurney Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y.

Money Loose Is Money Spent

If you hope to rise above the dependence on daily earnings, you must learn to save money. Saved money means capital, and capital means ability to take advantage of opportunities, offering, until some day you become independent.

The Bank of Nova Scotia will welcome your Savings Account and give you every possible service and attention.

PAID-UP CAPITAL $ 6,500,000
RESERVE FUND 12,000,000
RESERVE 148,000,000

THE BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA

Mr. H. H. Anderson, President
Mr. J. H. Macdonald, Vice-President
Mr. J. H. Macdonald, Vice-President
Mr. J. H. Macdonald, Vice-President

Lives Given In Country's Cause

The names of four New Brunswick men appear in the midnight casualty list. They are as follows: Wounded—Lieutenant E. P. J. Travis, St. John; C. G. (Gillie, Fairville); A. L. Hoffman, Woodstock; G. J. L. Parker, Campbellton.

Mrs. Mary Sullivan, Moncton, was advised yesterday that her son, Private Frederick Sullivan, had died of wounds.

Mrs. Martin Doyle, 54 Brook street, has received word that her brother, Private Daniel Astley, had died of wounds. Another brother, Private Albert Astley, was killed at Vimy Ridge.

Mrs. Robert W. Jeffrey, of Bagdad, Queens county, has been advised that her son, Private Blake Jeffrey, died of wounds on August 28. He was twenty-seven years old and leaves his parents, three brothers and five sisters.

Harry Milan, of Metcalf street, was advised yesterday that his brother, Private William Milan, had been wounded with gunshot in the throat. He was reported wounded on a previous occasion.

J. E. Record received a letter yesterday from his son, Gunner Charles Markham Second, of the 6th Siege Battery, stating that he was in a hospital in England, suffering from gas paralysis caused by concussion.

Wins U. S. Cross.

Robert L. Cameron, formerly of West St. John, who has been enlisted in the brother, J. A. Cameron, of Charlottetown, will leave tonight for home in West Somerset, Mass. Last night he received a letter from his wife enclosed in which was a clipping from a Boston paper, telling of the gallant conduct of his son.

Private Charles Cameron of the U. S. Army. The young man has been awarded the distinguished service cross.

Major F. L. Buchanan, of the pensions board, spent yesterday in the city in connection with work of local pensions office, under Lieutenant Colonel A. J. Markham. Major Buchanan paid a tribute to the work of Sergeant E. J. Puddy, secretary of the G. W. V. A.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion. Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepsin, bismuth, acids, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble. In some cases do not even give relief. But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little bismerated magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk, but the pure bismerated magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form. Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated, uneasy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat. You will find that provided you take a little bismerated magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and moreover, the continuous use of the bismerated magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.

HIS VISIT IN FRENCH CANADA

Francois Veilliot's Letter to Committee in Paris—Problem of War Participation Settled

La Verite is the one French paper to reproduce Francois Veilliot's letter to his committee in Paris on his Canadian wanderings, and that paper declares that the reproduction is only as a document. The French clerical exponent thanks the Canadian Cardinal, the Archbishop of Montreal, and all the religious orders and communities visited for their great kindness, and he says: "In Canada I discovered a French and Catholic people, and by this fact alone is one of the clearest evidences of the designs of Providence on our race. But the people will ask, and in fact I posed the question myself in approaching the banks of the St. Lawrence, if French-Canadians conserve in their hearts love for old France, how is it that the sufferings of their old mother country do not awaken more interest or more vibrating echoes? I cannot say, and have regained confidence. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign and brilliantly did their duty on the bloody plains of Flanders, while duty, under conscription, they are rapidly rallying to the colors. Can it be said, however, that there is no truth in the events and situations which provoked criticism or created misunderstandings? I think not. It is false that the French-Canadians refused to participate in the war, as thousands amongst them volunteered during the first months of the campaign