LOCAL NEWS

HALLOWEEN PARTY
Master Edward Broderick, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Broderick, Union street, was the host at a party given for boy friends last evening, and all had a jolly time. Stanley Harrington was the prize winner.

HUNTERS FROM AUSTRIA
Chatham Gazette.—To come all the way from Austria for a moose hunt in the famous Miramichi valley is what has brought Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Gatteter of Vienna, to this country. They have registered at the Miramichi Hotel, Newcastle, and are now with Jack Hare in the Pointe-a-la-Croix woods.

HALLOWEEN REUNION
The public Landing Outing Association held their annual reunion at Keith's Assembly rooms last evening. Fifty couples were present and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. There was a programme of fifteen dances. Supper was served at midnight. The chaperones were Mrs. Joseph Murdoch, Mrs. D. Corkery, Mrs. H. W. Belding and Mrs. G. Stringer.

COOKE-HAZLETT
At the home of Mrs. J. D. Wetmore, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist church, in Gilbert street, last evening, the wedding of Charles William Cooke and Miss Maud Isabella Hazlett, both of this city, was solemnized by him. The bride was attended by Miss Olive Boyce while Alex Brown was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Cooke will make their home in Prince William street.

SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL
At the home of Mrs. C. H. Doig, Stanley street, last evening the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. John Presbyterian church conducted a very interesting and successful tea and candy sale in aid of the fund to provide electric light improvements for the church. The tea was in charge of Misses Grete Cunningham, Hazel Smith, Lyle Kennedy, and Misses Parke and Johnston. Miss Florence Cummings was in charge of the candy table. Next week's social will be at Mrs. Armstrong's home.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
Of a well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the members of St. John Council No. 837, Knights of Columbus, last evening, matters of interest were discussed, and the outcome was that it was decided to hold a series of winter at home parties for the members and their friends in Keith's Assembly rooms the first on November 13. It was also decided to take up the matter of bowling and pool last evening. Indications point to a very successful and prosperous winter season.

HALLOWEEN PRANKS
While it is true that the police were kept busy last evening answering calls to various sections of the city from indignant householders who complained of mischievous boys, in few instances was it reported today that any damage to property had resulted. In parts of Indiantown youths tore up a fence in Victoria street and took the wheels of a wagon placing them in hallways nearby. When the owner of the vehicle went to work this morning he was about an hour behind his scheduled time because of scouting for the wheels and placing them in position. The old "dodge" of ransacking wood-piles, ringing doorbells, blowing oakum smoke, etc., were resorted to but to further damage to property. The office of Mr. Clarke, wood-dealer in Hilyard street, was entered by some boys, who apparently had a skeleton key, but although they went through the place, and turned things topsy-turvy, nothing of value was taken.

VOTERS' LIST IS INCREASED BY 119

Result of Work of Revisors is Given Out—The Various Wards

The city revisors have completed the voters' lists for 1913 with a net result of an increase of 119 names over the total for the present year. In the list by wards here given, it will be seen that the non-residents do not appear separately in the 1913 list. This is because they have been divided among the various wards in which they hold property, so that, in cases they qualify as voters, there will be no question regarding where they will vote.

The list, by wards, is as follows:

Guy's	1012	1013
Brooks	775	804
Sydney	489	484
Duke	630	660
Queens	613	633
Rings	908	1,000
Prince	689	720
Victoria	1,117	1,128
Dufferin	1,283	1,413
Lansdowne	857	910
Stables	1,160	1,160
Non-resident	1,060	1,112
Totals	11,287	11,606

WILL OF JEREMIAH HARRISON IN PROBATE

All Property Left to Wife—Other Estates in Court

In the probate court today the will of Jeremiah Harrison, retired merchant, was proved. He gives all his property to his wife Julia absolutely and nominates William E. Vroom and his nephew Frank L. Harrison executors. The former having died the latter was sworn in as executor. The real estate consists of a small interest in Albert county of the value of $80. The personal estate was some time ago transferred to Mrs. Harrison with the exception of $5,000 which is the present value of the personality. Clarence H. Ferguson is probator.

The matter of the estate of Mrs. Charlotte Louisa Seely, was taken up. She died intestate leaving her husband, Daniel J. Seely and three sons and five daughters. On the petition of the husband he was appointed administrator. There is no real estate; personal estate $700. Hainington & Hainington are probators.

The court also took up the matter of the estate of Magnus S. Miller, iron heater. He died in 1902 intestate leaving his wife, Sarah Ann, since deceased; one son, George S. Miller, tinmith and two daughters, Annie wife of Wellington Barnes, motorman, and Minnie, wife of Harry Sinclair, engine driver. On the petition of the son he was appointed administrator. There is no real estate; personal property consisting of leasehold in the north end, $2,200. Daniel Mullin, K. C. is probator.

EIGHT OF CREW OF THE KANAWHA ARE ARRESTED

Breaching Cargo Charge Against Them—May Be Warned And Allowed to Go Aboard

Eight seamen, about one-third of the crew of the S. S. Kanawha, which is lying at No. 5 berth, West St. John, were arrested this morning by Detective Killen and Sergeant Finlay, on the charge of breaching the cargo of the ship. The men arrested are John Fletcher, aged 30; Frederick Freeman, aged 34; John Mullins, aged 30; George Green, aged 52; Hockett Lodge, aged 20; Patrick Hogan, aged 48; James Garbett, aged 46; and George S. Martin, aged 37. All of the prisoners, with the exception of Martin, are Englishmen. The men were given in charge by Captain Kellman, on charge of breaching a quantity of Worcester sauce and liquor. The men were taken into custody about eleven o'clock. The arrests came as the result of a search by officers of the ship this morning in the men's quarters. One of the crew named Green was reported to be too ill for duty, so Chief Officer Blaxland went down to the forecastle to investigate. He says that he found Green partly under the influence of liquor. Green was sent out on deck, and his bunk was searched. A bottle, partly filled with gin, and several bottles of sauce were found. In consequence of this find, the captain ordered that all the bunks be searched. It is following out the orders twenty-three bottles of sauce, two square faces of gin, one bottle of whiskey and two empty gin bottles were found in the bunks. Captain Kellman then summoned the police and had eight of the men arrested. Five men were declared involved, but one man was too sick to leave the ship. The prisoners were brought to the central police station and arraigned before Police Magistrate Ritchie, who pleaded not guilty. Captain Kellman told of seeing in the search which led to the finding of the gin bottle, that the watchman had told him that Fletcher and Green were the prime movers, and that Lodge was also involved. In reply to a question from the court, the witness said that several cases of sauce and one or two of gin, which were part of the cargo, had been broken open. The men had strict orders not to bring any liquor on board the ship. Chief Officer Blaxland corroborated the evidence of the captain and told of finding the bottles of sauce and gin in Green's bunk. Chief Engineer Thomas Welch told of searching the stokers' mess, James Curran, finding no stolen goods. James Curran, boatwain, also gave evidence. The prisoners were remanded to the central police station. The Kanawha is due to sail from tomorrow night and unless the men are held up for several days, Captain Kellman told the court that he did not wish to have the men sentenced, but merely wanted the practice of breaching cargo stopped on his ship. The evidence against the men this morning was not very direct, and His Honor told the jury that he would allow the men their liberty right away if he wanted them. Captain Kellman, however, stated that the men he kept in custody until the steamer sails. Several additional witnesses were to be called this afternoon.

SIR FREDERICK BORDEN TALKS OF THE OUTLOOK

Ex-Minister of Militia Was in City Today on His Way to Nova Scotia

A visitor here today was Sir Frederick Borden, ex-minister of militia, who was passing through from Montreal to his home in Nova Scotia. He arrived at noon on the Montreal express. He appeared in the best of health and spoke cheerfully regarding the outlook for the return of the Laurier administration. Regarding the political situation at present Sir Frederick said that matters at the capital were not as peaceful as his namesake, Hon. Mr. Borden, would like to see them, and he was having his own troubles in soothing the ruffled feelings of party heeled and office aspirants. Sir Frederick looks for an election upon the naval question before any definite policy is adopted. "Sir Wilfrid" he said in a meeting with a rousing and hearty reception wherever he goes, and he is eager and ready for the fray." Sir Frederick left again at noon on his way home.
