Budget of News Concerning Stage Favorites Known to St. John Audiences.

Alice Fleming, who was a favorite here a few years ago in Daniel Ryan's company, last week announced that she intended to retire from the stage...

When Viola Allen opens in her new love-romance by Louis X. Barker, the man who wrote "Pomander Walk," she will use the magnificent production built for Masquini's "Tobacco," which after the firm had spent $100,000, never came off...

Little Miss Violet Homing, who will be seventeen pretty soon, is to have the part of Doris Moore in "The Deep Purple," this season.

Wm. Courtleigh, who played here with Haglins in Toronto recently, appearing in "Peaches," a comedy skit at Shea's, J. J. Shubert, of the famous firm of managers, had his stage director were in Toronto to see the first performance of any stage of a comedy adapted from the German, named Modern Marriage, which was presented by the favorite artist, Percy Haswell and her latest company at the Royal Alexandra.

It is debatable whether the joke in the production of a romantic play was then rehearsing with her company. "The secretary sat him down with a trinket in his usually solemn eyes, and when Miss Haswell received his note she found it contained a message granting the favor. The condition was that since the armor was of such great age and such inestimable value to the club, he must ask her to 'observe' the greatest caution in its transportation."

Miss Haswell sent a property man, an electrician and a sleuth engaged from local detective agency to convey the precious relic to her presence. "The man were gone for two hours. When they arrived the armor was in rusty circular sections. The plume was a tuff of quills from a feather duster. The shining helmet had taken on the semblance of a sugar cone. A wax finding a few yards of stove pipe bisecting the chamber when the club took possession of them has fashioned it into the similitude of ancient armor. The shadows of the press gallery had added the illusion. Margaret Anglin is to have a busy season. When she isn't playing in New York in "Green Stockings," her present successful comedy, or rehearsing for Gangway's latest, "The Next Religion," she will be putting on special matinee performances at Leblond & Co's Century Theatre, formerly called the New Theatre. The first of these special performances will be Martiel's "Deaths of Tintagoe," and she will follow this with "Antigone," "Medea" and another Greek heroine role. Ezra Krudell, Jr., son of the late star Ezra Kendall, made his debut as an actor with the Davidson stock company in Montreal recently. Mark Twain's estate as appraised and probated in Bethel, Conn., amounts to $877,864. Royalties from Harper & Brothers amount to about $1,800 a month. Charles Frohman will produce Sir A. W. Pinero's new play, Preserving Mr. Bannure, in the States on Oct. 23. The play had a successful run at the Comedy Theatre, London. Ethel Jackson, now Mrs. Lockwood, who sang the title-role of "The Merry Widow in the first American production of that opera, arrived in New York from Kingston, recently. The Merry Widow made ending time for Miss Jackson and Donald Brian, who danced the waltz in New York; city more than 400 times, but unlike Mr. Brian, who is to be starred in The Siren this season, Miss Jackson was content to retire on that achievement. For the last three years she has maintained a strictly private existence. Edmund Brees is in Worcester, Mass., the guest of J. A. Nourse, enjoying the amateur sports which characterize summer life in the smaller cities, and was one of the centers of interest of the doctors' and lawyers' annual ball game in that city. His friends here will be interested to know that Mr. Brees is to star next season in a new play, The Decision, by a Philadelphia artist. Dustin Farnum, who made his first stage appearance in St. John in 1888, has just returned after an automobile trip through Europe. He relates a thrilling experience which he and Mrs. Farnum, together with Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Klausner (June Low), underwent in the Alps, where they were automobiling when a crowd of villagers attacked them with stones, hurling the missiles down from a cliff. Mr. Farnum explains that the peasants had no personal feeling against them as actors, automobilists or tourists, but that they dislike English people. The Farnum party, he said, was dressed as English because of their speech. Clara Morris, who had gradually become blind, under the treatment of the specialist, is gradually regaining her eyesight. Her husband, Frank Harriot, says that Miss Morris has been able to distinguish the different persons in her room. Tom Wise has been selected to star with Joseph Barrymore in "Uncle Sam," a new comedy.

Miss Daphne Troth, better known in St. John as Daphne Pollard, through her play-going with the men's doubles, Dr. Macdonald, St. John, assistant city editor of the Seattle Times, were married in Seattle recently. Mrs. Branch was queen of the Golden Peltach recently held in that city. They will spend their honeymoon in California for two years, after which she will return to the stage or not. Carl Vernon, who was with the Myrtle Harder in the last season, is now in the Augusta, Me., State Asylum. He had been in poor health for four years, suffering from dementia praecox and locomotor ataxia. He was born in Redfield on Sept. 23, 1870, his real name being Carroll Miller. He took the lead in the printer's trade in Gardiner, Me. Showing some talent for the stage, some business men decided to send him to the St. John School of Dramatic Art. He had several offers before the close of his first year there. As a repetitive actor he played more than 300 parts, appearing with the Myrtle Harder company, the Buffalo Stock company and others.

James K. Hackett has begun a suit in New York to recover $6,000 which he declares is due him under a five year contract with William A. Brady, Incorporated. He charges Mr. Brady with breach of contract.

Under the terms of the contract, which went into effect last September, Mr. Hackett says he was to be starred by Mr. Brady for five years. For the first two years he was to receive a salary of $300 a week and one-third of the profits. During the last three years he says he was to receive the same salary but was to get one-half the profits. The season was to be from September 1 to May 1, and Mr. Brady guaranteed it is alleged, that Mr. Hackett's share of the profits would never be less than $3,000 a year.

When the season closed this year, Mr. Hackett says that Mr. Brady refused to pay him any share of the profits.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRE The forest fire in Nova Scotia were still raging fiercely last night. A vast tract of valuable country is devastated. Thirty buildings have been destroyed. William R. Badger, of Pittsburgh and St. Croix Johnstone, of Chicago, two aviators, were killed at Chicago yesterday. Both were young men.

Mrs. Richardson is a daughter of the late Dr. James Rudolph of this city. The subject of Purity, Art and Literature was discussed, and the members had a symposium on immodest dressing.

HAD MADE UP HIS MIND A Cleveland lawyer tells how during a trial, one of the jurors suddenly rose from his seat and fled from the courtroom. He was, however, arrested in his flight before he had left the building, and brought back.

"I should like to know what you mean by such an action as this," demanded the judge, in a lenient tone, however, as he knew the man, an elderly German, to be a simple, straightforward person.

"Well, your honor, I will explain," said the juror. "Ven Mr. Jones finished with his talking my mind was clear all through but ven Mr. Smith begins his talking I becomes all confused again already, and I says to myself, 'I better leave at once and stay away until it is done,' because, your honor, to tell the truth, I didn't like der stay der argument was going."

SAM LANGFORD EASILY THE MASTER OF O'BRIEN

SAM LANGFORD

New York, Aug. 16.—(Special)—Sam Langford, the Nova Scotian negro, with an advantage of about ten pounds in weight, fought Philadelphia Jack O'Brien to a standstill in four and one-half rounds last night at the Twentieth Century Club. Referee Charlie White prevented a knockout, when he stepped in between the men in the middle of the fifth round and stopped the bout. O'Brien was practically out from the effects of a hard left hook on the jaw and had to be helped to his corner.

It was the old story of a clever, game boxer pitted against a hard hitting fighter, and from the start the Nova Scotian was in command. O'Brien was taken down by a right hand to the chest, and he was unable to get up for some time. There was no question as to O'Brien's power, as he took a lot of punishment in the fourth and was fighting hard in the fifth until Langford landed the stunning blow.

THE GEM Jack Morrissey is making a big hit with Gem patrons in his rendering of popular songs today. He has a jolly sunny smile and "Mim, Ah Mim, The Orchestra has some new pieces also. In the picture program the leading feature is a middle dramatic production by the Selks of "The Tale of the Eskimo," a story of a frozen northern land, where a man and a woman, the queen of love and the queen of hate, are set in a terrible and added incident through the manipulations of a wicked witch, and it also ran for months in Daly's Theatre, New York, and productions are soon to be given in Paris, Berlin, Vienna, St. Petersburg, South America, St. Africa and Australia.

THE UNIQUE A glance at the amusement column will show that the Unique Theatre has an excellent array of features for the mid-week. "Love is Best," deals with the human qualities which the lay people are apt in picturing. It is for some time enjoying a chance to show for her living in New York, and in the mid-week, she is success losing her. After suffering a week's hard work, returning home, "Greater Love Has None," is a picture of the unrequited love and devotion, with the visitors. The Gaumont Co. has a hand colored product are considered excellent with the times. Miss Gertrude Mann's number, "Janes Dear," is an excellent picture, she is capable sung by the clever young lady. Her offering for tomorrow will be the hit, "Put Your Loving Arms Around Me."

THE LYRIC In introducing Lyric's Marionettes to Lyric patrons the management is confident that they would prove a most pleasing diversion, and scarce plenty of enjoyment to those who attend. The fact that this act has scored one of the biggest hits of any variety act presented at the popular theatre for some time justified the announcement. The eccentric troupe of mannikin comedians were the principal feature at Conroy Island last season and a big treat will be missed if lovers of amusement do not see them. The house was too small to accommodate the crowds last night. The entire programme will be changed tomorrow. Two clever European acrobats being the main attraction for the balance of the week.

THE STAR Motion picture magazines are reviewed from time to time, of selected programs of features for performances to be given to gatherings of picture photographers, manufacturers and performers. Needless to say, a programme of this kind would comprise the best pictures obtainable in the motion picture art. For Wednesday and Thursday nights the Star Theatre in the North End, announces a selected programme of four handsome pictures that have received high commendation from leading picture reviewers. AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN: WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER THE OPERA HOUSE. It takes a wise manager as well as a good play to meet the exacting requirements of the theatre-going people of today. Arthur C. Astion has been recognized as one of the most successful managers and producers, and he attributes his success to his ability to grasp what the people want in the way of plays, and how they far succeeded in his efforts. Among the most prominent of his attractions now making its twelfth annual year, is the beautiful romantic drama, "At the Old Cross Roads," a story of the south, dealing with a theme that has appealed to the masses, played in five acts and interpreted by carefully selected and trained players, unique as well as true-life characters. Mr. Astion has equipped the attraction with all new scenery and effects for a season and has secured in addition a troupe of real Southern plantation negroes who will amuse and entertain with a varied programme of the old time songs, dances and musical novelties. This play will be the attraction at the Opera House commencing Thursday night and the sale of seats is now on. At noon each day there will be a street parade. Wm. A. Brady, Ltd., announces the
